Error in headline

A headline that appeared in the July 21 edition of The Romulus Roman Newspaper pertaining to a controversy between the two members of the township board and police chief Joseph Carney was in error. The headline should have read: "Huron Township Board supports Police Chief ... Over Waltz fundraiser."

The majority of the township board supported Chief Carney's action in the Waltz incident.

The Roman regrets the error and any inconvenience it may have caused Chief Carney.

While Van Buren Township supervisor Patricia Cullin watches, Richard G. Headlee, president of Alexander Hamilton Life, signs purchase papers for $2½ million worth of Economic Development Corporation bonds permitting the construction of a Coca-Cola distribution center in Van Buren. Also in on the ceremonies are Joseph R. Serio, Executive Vice President of Coca-Cola Bottlers, and Robert DeMattia, president of R.A. DeMattia Company, a general partner on the lease arrangement. The center will be located between Metropolitan Airport and Willow Run on I-275 a mile north of I-94 and will be built on a 27-acre industrial site.

New $2.5 million distribution facility planned in Van Buren

Three familiar corporate names are "putting their money where their mouths are" in an expression of confidence in Michigan's economic future, it was announced today.

Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America, ranked in the top 3 percent of the nation's life insurance companies and the largest insurance company domiciled in Michigan, today signed the purchase papers for $2½ million worth of Economic Development Corporation bonds permitting the construction of a Coca-Cola distribution center in Van Buren Township. R.A. DeMattia Company is a real estate partner in the deal and will begin construction of the facility next month.

Richard H. Headlee, president of Alexander Hamilton Life, which is headquartered in Farmington Hills, said "This significant investment by Alexander Hamilton Life helps continue jobs in Michigan and will help a respected company like Coca-Cola Bottlers of Detroit relocate into larger facilities.

Coca-Cola Bottlers of Detroit is an independently franchised firm with eight production and distribution facilities in six southeastern Michigan counties. It bottles and distributes Coca-Cola, Dr. Pepper, Squirt and Sunkist brands.

According to Joseph R. Serio, Executive Vice-President of the bottling company, the new facility will be a 91,250 square foot distribution center on a 27-acre industrial site in Van Buren Township between Ecorse Road and Tyler Road.

Van Buren Township's industrial park is located between Metropolitan Airport and Willow Run on I-275 a mile north of I-94.

Serio said the Van Buren Township distribution center will replace current distribution facilities of Coca-Cola Bottlers of Detroit in Livonia.

Robert DeMattia, president of R.A. DeMattia Company, said he was impressed and appreciative of the pro-business attitude of the Van Buren Township elected officials.

"We've been putting this package together for months," DeMattia said, "and the Supv. Cullin and the Board of Trustees have been aggressively cooperative in trying to win this distribution facility for Van Buren Township."

The new distribution center will be financed through the sales of $2.5 million Van Buren Township Economic Development Corporation bonds. R.A. DeMattia Company is a general partner in the lease arrangement. Coca-Cola Bottlers of Detroit will operate and manage this distribution facility.

"We are anxious to get a development of this magnitude into operation," said Mrs. Cullin, Van Buren Township Supervisor who participated in the bond signing activity.

"Expanding our tax revenue base and attracting jobs is a major objective of Van Buren Township."

Predict heavy voter turnout for primary

Despite the absence of any "big or controversial issues" as recall which confronts Van Buren Township voters, both Romulus City Clerk Raymond Cantrell and Huron Township clerk Mary Lou Carey predict large voter turnout for Tuesday's primary election.

Voters in the township and city will be selecting partisan candidates for the November General Election, including candidates for Governor, United States Senator, Representative of Congress as well as state senate and state house.

There is also on the ballot county commissioners and county executive positions which voters will have to decide.

"Traditionally this township has a very large turnout during elections," said Mrs. Carey who predicted that between 55 to 65 percent of the 5,800 registered voters will turn up to cast their ballots.

Mrs. Carey said she is basing her prediction on the number of applications for absentee ballots.

"We have 280 out right now," she said, "and that's sort of an indicator. My people are concerned over the state and county races and if we do not get inclement weather I believe that more than half of the eligible voters will show up to vote."

Cantrell also said that he was positive that there "would be more than the usual who would vote because of the various county and state seats up for grabs."

"I'm looking at between 40 to 50 percent of our voters turning out — the Lucas vs. McNamara race is just one of the hot issues," he added.

Wayne County Sheriff William Lucas and Edward McNamara, Mayor of Livonia, are waging a bitter battle to find out which will become the county's first elected county executive.

Also the newly-apportioned 37th state house of Representative race where incumbent Edward Mahalak is being challenged by attorney Rogers J. Cadaret and Canton Township planner James Kostova along with Wayne County Deputy Betty Jo Price is shaping up to be one of the closest in recent years.

However, the recall in Van Buren Township has attracted a lot of attention. Van Buren Township board supervisor Patricia Cullin, along with clerk Doreen Craven, treasurer Tom Welty, and trustees Tim Toohey and Chester Wojciechowski are fighting for political survival.

The five elected officers have been accused of hiring a controversial police commander and thereby jeopardizing the township to liabilities.

Schools go for millage again

Romulus Schools will go for it one more time.

The Board of Education, after much debate and discussion, has decided to ask local voters to approve an 8.5 renewal levy and an additional mill for school repairs and renovations.

The action came over the dissenting vote of newly-elected board member Ed Wilkerson.

Two separate tax proposals will appear on the ballot on a special school election scheduled for Sept. 13. The first proposal will be what school officials label an "all-important" levy, a 8.5 renewal. The second proposal asks for one mill additional in taxes for maintenance, repairs asbestos removal and vehicle purchases.

The new mill will generate approximately $316,000 for school maintenance. President Dan Bales said that "We are going to have to do something about the asbestos problem at the high school. OCHA is now involved and we may have to give each employee a physical. What about our children who go through several years at the high school?"

The motion was made by trustee Dick Campbell and seconded by Treasurer Marvicsin. It passed by a vote of 6-1 with newly elected Trustee Ed Wilkerson voted no.

Wilkerson felt the board should concentrate on one issue at a time and right now the 8.5 renewal is top priority.

Blakely Drain

Who should pay for study?

A court ordered assessment for expenses on a drain study has split the Romulus City Council and administration on whether the monies to pay should come from the city-at-large or from the drain district involved.

Circuit Judge Charles Kaufman has ordered the cities of Romulus, Woodhaven, Gibraltar, Southgate and the townships of Brownstown and Huron to cough up the money for the Blakely Drain Improvement District.

The costs for the engineering study for the proposed improvement has led to a legal entanglement which Brownstown attorney William J. DeBiasi is hoping to resolve.

DeBiasi hopes to get a stay of Judge Kaufman's order and fight the assessment because he feels the cities and townships involved "have not had their day in court."

Romulus' share of the Blakely Drain study comes to approximately $150,000. City Attorney Charles M. Lowther, in a statement to Mayor William M. Oakley and the City Council pointed out "that the city is under a current obligation to 'levy sufficient taxes' to bring the debt current. Although there is necessarily some confusion as to whether this levy is in compliance with the Headlee Amendment, the levy was ordered by the Circuit Court."

"It is well settled by case law that a municipality may be legally required to levy to pay judgment, by Writ of Mandamus, which was done in this case."

"Inasmuch as the city has been ordered to make a levy, it risks contempt of court in failing to do so..."

However, who should pay for the levy? Should those who would have benefited by the drain improvement or the city-at-large?

Councilmen Jimmie Raspberry and John Lewkowicz say that city charter mandates that when an improvement occurs, those residents who would benefit from the improvement are legally liable for the payment.

However, the court order says that the city-at-large should be assessed, according to attorney Lowther and Mayor Oakley's interpretation.

Lewkowicz said that he interpreted DeBiasi's arguments to mean that the communities involved were misled by the county drain commissioner. That he (the drain commissioner) led the cities to believe that a drain would be built and improved, and costs were levied for the study to be made, but nothing actually took place.

Raspberry argued that the city charter points out the specifics and the city is mandated to uphold the law of the charter.

"My contention is that the people who would have benefited from the improvement on the Blakely Drain should have been assessed for the drains and it is my sincere opinion that the assessment should not be at-large.

"I also interpret Judge Kaufman's ruling to defend by opinion," Raspberry said.

Councilman Barry Baumann has mixed feelings about assessing the residents for the study which has been lost in time.

"According to DeBiasi, we were not given our day in court," Baumann noted. "And the court has gone right ahead and ordered the city to pay the money. We have no choice but to pay."

"Now, you should not have to assess people unless the residents in that area are going to derive some sort of benefit from that improvement. But I feel that the court has ordered the assessment at-large and until proven or ordered otherwise, the city has to obey that order or face contempt charges," Baumann concluded.

On job training

Two young students are learning secretarial skills thanks to a federally-funded program.

The two, Brenda McMillon, and Donna Marhofer, are assigned to the Sumpter Township offices to gain experience in office skills.

"These two young ladies will gain experience and the knowledge of secretarial skills and will be able to go out into the community and become valued and responsible employees," noted James M. Reeves, township supervisor.

"Obviously we are very pleased and happy to have them with us."

Sumpter Township participates in the S.C.O.R.E program a federally funded program, through the school system and the Wayne Metropolitan Community Services Program via Wayne County CETA, (Comprehensive Employment Training Act).

Miss McMillon is currently working in the Housing Rehabilitation program under the supervision of Juanita Wyche, the Housing Rehabilitation Coordinator, while Miss Marhofer is working out of the Supervisor's Office under the supervision of Sharon Pokrowski.

No one is injured

Boats collide in Belleville Lake

A Van Buren couple miraculously escaped injuries Saturday night when the pontoon boat they were in on Belleville Lake was struck by what they said was a speeding craft.

The boat was damaged, however. Mr. and Mrs. Weiss said they were both badly shaken up by the incident but not hurt.

"If this collision had happened an hour earlier than it did," Weiss said, "I don't know what the outcome would have been. We had 11 others on the boat at that time."

Weiss said that the accident occurred around 11:15 p.m. Saturday night, about 100 feet from shore in the west end of the lake. He said that he has lived on the lake for 15 years and has operated a boat every year and "this is the first time anything like this has ever happened. And I feel fortunate."

"However, the lake doesn't have patrols any more and some of the boat owners are apparently taking advantage of the situation. We see boats speeding and cruising dangerously out there. Something must be done."

Wayne County Sheriff's Department had patrolled the lake in the past. They pulled their manpower from the waters a year and a half ago due to budget cutbacks.

Weiss said he had filed a report with the Van Buren Police Department over the incident.

"There's a DNR boat out there, but all they do, I think, is to issue tickets for illegal fishing," Weiss added.

Patricia Cullin, Van Buren Township Supervisor, said the problem in the lake was created when the Sheriff's Department pulled its patrol. Belleville and Van Buren can't solve the problem with its manpower, she said, without funding.

"There are some monies at the state level for this," Mrs. Cullin said, "but when we attempted to apply for it we were told that the money would have to go to the sheriff's."

"However, we now have a full-time police chief and maybe we can go back and request for some help," Mrs. Cullin continued. "Lucas has promised us to restore the lake patrol if he is elected."

Lucas (William Lucas, county sheriff) is seeking to become the inaugural Wayne County Executive. The primary for that race will be held on Tuesday.

Romulus teen, Inkster youth killed in auto accident

Romulus police will be seeking criminal charges against a driver of a vehicle that struck and killed two teen-agers who were walking on Beverly Rd. in Romulus.

The victims are:

Brian Hunter, 18, of Inkster, and Tina Jones, 17, of Romulus.

Romulus police refused to identify the driver of the vehicle, pending the issuance of a warrant.

"We've handed the information of our investigation over to the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office and are awaiting a warrant," a police spokesman said.

The accident occurred about 9:45 p.m.

Friday night on Beverly, just west of Chamberlin Rd. Police theorize that the victims were either walking alongside the road and possibly getting ready to cross the street when the fatal accident occurred.

Hunter died shortly after being struck by the vehicle, while Miss Jones was conveyed to Wayne County General Hospital where she expired on August 1.

Belleville resident graduates from State Police student school

A Belleville resident was among the 57 boys and girls of high school class levels who graduated last week from the 14th annual American Legion-State Police student trooper school in the State Police Academy.

Robert El Ladouceur of Belleville, was among those who received honors at the annual ceremonies.

A luncheon and graduation program for the 43 boys and 14 girls climaxed a one-week orientation in law enforcement activities and responsibilities. This was the eighth year of eligibility for girls in the school.

Program speakers and participants included Col. Gerald L. Hough, State Police director, F/Lt. Kenneth Taylor, assistant commander of the State Police training division, and Lt. James Mueller, State Police commander of the student school, and student class orator, James Downing of Oxford. Colonel Hough also presided at the presentation of the graduation certificates.

Awards included several to class members. One for scholarship was given to Tim A. Bliss of Atlanta. One for marksmanship went to David Thompson of Grand Rapids who also won the outstanding student trophy.

The school was conducted by officers of the operations division, whose commander is Capt. Gene Rooker, by training division officers and other State Police in cooperation with Legion personnel and guest instructors.

In addition to school commander Lt. Mueller, school staff, officers included Sgts. Jack Shepherd and Nadean Yovanovich of the community services section of the operations division, East Lansing, and Troopers Matt Wesaw, Lansing, James Hostutler, Owosso, and Sue Griffiths, New Buffalo team.

More letters about recall

An answer to Yurchak

EDITOR — We would like to respond to the letter of Ron Yurchak (Belleville Enterprise, July 21, 1982) addressed to Mary Lou Carey's letter, (Belleville Enterprise, July 14, 1982).

In paragraph #2 Mr. Yurchak applauds Ms. Carey for surviving a recall attempt because she does a "good job as Clerk in Huron Township".

In paragraph #9 Mr. Yurchak questions Ms. Carey's qualifications as a "Certified Municipal Clerk" and suggests she should go back for refresher courses.

In paragraph #4, Mr. Yurchak confirms the fact he paid the required deposit and was given a permit to display signs in compliance with the Township Ordinance covering the display of political signs.

Mr. Yurchak are you aware that the State Act on Safety Regulations forbids the erection of signs on the road "right of way" and on utility poles?

The safety Act is specifically for the safety of employees of the utility companies who may have to "shimmy up" the poles. Can you imagine the uproar if a utility company employee is injured because of staples, nails, screws, etc. hammered into the poles!!!!

Mr. Yurchak do you or any member of your recall committee have written permission to display your recall signs on the public utility poles?

In paragraph #5, Mr. Yurchak states that members of the Van Buren Township Board refused to answer questions put to them.

When Mr. Yurchak?

We have been present at more town board meetings than you or members of your recall committee and the questions have been answered to the best of their ability by members of the Town Board.

Mr. Yurchak, who is backing your recall attempt? Are the backers all residents of Van Buren Township? Or are they outsiders who are "sticking their noses into other peoples' business"? (a quote from paragraph #11.)

If you, Mr. Yurchak, talked to thousands of people in Van Buren Township (paragraph 11) who are opposed to the present government, how come only 2,000 people signed your recall petitions? How many of the approximate 2,000 residents did you talk to? Did that include minor aged residents?

It is strange that you, Mr. Yurchak and members of your recall committee supported the election of Mr. Tim Toohey as Trustee in the November 1980 election — BUT — when he refused to do your bidding you turned against him.

Mr. Yurchak in paragraph #7 you have mandated to the members of the Van Buren Township Board duties that are the responsibilities of the State of Michigan and of Wayne County.

Mr. Yurchak we have not received answers to questions posed to you in our letter in the January 6, 1982, issue of the Belleville Enterprise.

Nor, Mr. Yurchak have you given us the list of all 75 persons who, according to your letter in paragraph #12 of the January 6, 1982 issue of the Belleville Enterprise, were at that time circulating recall petitions.

We stated in our letter published in the January 20, 1982, issue of the Belleville Enterprise that if the circulators have the tenacity to circulate petitions they should have the courage of their convictions to stand up and be counted.

Mr. Yurchak, in your letter published in the Belleville Enterprise, January 6, 1982, you request the Editor of the Belleville Enterprise "to use discretion and refuse to print that which you know to be false."

Yet, Mr. Yurchak, two statements on your recall petitions are false and misleading. Re: Public Act #203 and Township control of the Wayne Disposal Landfill.

Mr. Yurchak, in paragraph #5 you state "the way they have misled and mistreated the Senior Citizens at the hall".

Mr. Yurchak, as Senior Citizens, who have been present at numerous Senior Citizen functions at Van Buren Township hall, we have yet to witness mistreatment of anyone.

Mr. Yurchak, what mistreatment, what mistreatment are you again alleging and in what way have the Senior Citizens been misled?

We would be the first to protest any mistreatment of Senior Citizens or any citizen by anyone. It is ludicrous to think that members of the Van Buren Township Board would "abuse" anyone.

Your statement relative to misleading Senior Citizens reflect on the intelligence of the Senior Citizens who are capable of making up their own minds.

Mr. Yurchak, as chairman of the recall committee, you are now a Republican candidate for Trustee on the Van Buren Township Board in the Primary Election on August 10, 1982. This is a "statement of fact" not an "allegation".

Mr. Yurchak will you please inform the Van Buren Township electorate what your qualifications are to warrant your election.

Mr. Yurchak, is it not true that a member of your recall committee was appointed to the Michigan Board of Chiropractic by the "lame duck" Governor of the State of Michigan, to serve until December 31, 1985?

A NO vote on the recall of the five Van Buren Township Board members, would, in our opinion, be in the best interest of Van Buren Township.

The SILENT MAJORITY will have the last word on August 10, 1982.

French Landing dam questioned

EDITOR — May I make a few comments about the front page article (Belleville Enterprise, July 21, 1982 — re: French Landing Dam Project may proceed as planned) regarding the success of Van Buren Supervisor Patricia Cullin and the French Landing Dam project?

• If you will check I believe you will find that your reported $2.5 million of Federal Grant money has already been received and spent. It was insufficient to complete all the repairs.

• No money is available to complete the remaining repairs.

• No money is available to equip the dam for the generating of power.

• Your article seems to indicate that Supervisor Cullin believes the dam should bring in approx. $53 million in the next 30 years. This must be based on a fixed inflation rate and a constant demand for electrical power. I don't believe either of these should, or can, be forecast for the next 30 years in our unstable economy and changing technology, (advent of solar power, etc.).

While the exemption for the dam was important to the township, I feel the article contained some highly misleading information. Thank you for allowing me to set the record straight.

DARWIN R. KURETH
Van Buren Township Trustee

Grants coordinator defends dam

EDITOR: Regarding Trustee Kureth's letter to the editor, I would like to respond to each of his comments.

1. Mr. Kureth is right, 2.5 million dollars worth of grant monies has already been received and spent on repairs to the French Landing Dam. Although there are still some repairs left to do, those completed were very significant. If the grants had not been received, the township would have still had to get the repairs done due to the hazardous condition of the dam. The 2.5 million dollars from the grants enabled the township to complete the repairs necessary to stop an order from the Department of Natural Resources to repair or REMOVE the dam. The dam is now safe and the Township can be selective in finding the best way to complete the repairs and retrofit the dam with power-generating equipment. That the 2.5 million dollars in grants was insufficient to complete the repairs should tell the taxpayers of Van Buren a great deal. Without the grants, how would the township have been able to make the dam safe? Who would have paid for it — the residents? The aggressiveness of Supervisor Cullin in securing the federal and state funds is monumental. Her concern for saving the dam and saving the township from such an expense should be applauded.

2. Trustee Kureth says there is no money available to complete the remaining repairs. Presently there are no grants available for this project, however, several private developers are very interested in investing in the French Landing Dam. Revenue Bonding is another avenue with which the project could be completed and would also be at no extra cost to the residents. The bonds would be repaid by the revenue earned from generating power.

3. The funds for retrofitting the dam would be secured in conjunction with obtaining the funds for the repairs.

4. The French Landing Dam Project is like many similar projects across the county. The need for utilizing our natural resources (wind, solar, water) is becoming more evident all the time. There are over 30,000 small dams across the country and the Army Corps. of Engineers did an extensive study to determine which ones could begin producing power again. The French Landing Dam was designated as a prime site for development for hydropower production.

The projections for revenues earned from producing electricity was prepared by Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May, the engineering firm contracted by the township to work on the dam. These projections were not numbers pulled out of a hat. Based on figures released from the Public Service Commission and Detroit Edison, the engineers were able to project the revenues which could be earned over a thirty year period.

Those projections were not Supervisor Cullin's; she was wise enough to have professional experts in that field forecast these projections, and, of course, they did take all the factors Trustee Kureth mentioned into consideration.

Also, since other outside investors feel secure in investing their money, their experts must also project a potential for high revenues.

One should know that all projections are based on an average inflation rate.

As far as the demand for electrical power, there will always be a demand, whether it's water, solar, wind, oil or gas and our changing technology will probably increase that demand as we move forward into the world of such things as robotics. We could utilize every natural resource available for producing power and the country would still have to import oil.

The details of this project are very complex and it is not possible to include four years of information gathered by Supervisor Cullin and myself, as Community Developer, into this letter. The exemption for the dam was very important, this project is very important — too important to mislead the residents with false information strictly for political gain.

As this project progresses, the residents will be informed with explicit details. Before the Township can operate a hydroelectric plant, the residents of Van Buren will have to vote their approval.

If the Township does not proceed with the project, it would then be possible for private enterprise to petition the Federal Government for the right to complete the development and reap all the monetary benefits. This has already happened in other areas. I don't want to see that happen here until we have fully studied our own possibilities for producing power and the effects it will have on the township and its ability to earn revenues to help support the future dam and for services without an additional burden to the taxpayers. Once the voters are fully informed, it will be their final decision.

Trustee Kureth once stated in a meeting that the Township should not even consider going into a profit-making business. Supervisor Cullin would rather see the Township make money from the sale of power to Detroit Edison than to obtain needed revenue for the future out of all our pockets in the form of additional taxes.

Welty gets letter of support

EDITOR — In a few short days, you as a voter will be able to play a very important part in a recall election. It is extremely necessary that we all pull together in this upcoming election to retain our Township Treasurer and Police Commissioner, Tom Welty. What we are dealing with here is simple. A group of people led by a couple of economically stressed and desperate individuals trying to create Township openings for themselves.

I have known Tom Welty now for quite some time. He is one of the most concerned politicians I have ever had the pleasure of meeting. The concern he carries for his community is not a part time quality. Tom carries this quality with him everywhere he goes.

He is always asking people in our community what he can do to better our living environment. This is the type of politician we need. Quite frankly, I am sick and tired of politicians that seek office for their own benefit. Tom Welty is not this type of person.

He is a person who cares and we have to stand behind him. We must believe in him as we did last time we elected him. I stake my reputation on Tom Welty as a fine and outstanding individual who cares. Please help our cause. VOTE "NOT" ON THE RECALL.

LEONARD KELLER.

Response and service new motto?

Van Buren gets its new police chief

Van Buren Township has its first full-time police chief.

Leonard Keller and the township board have come to contractual agreement and the former head of law enforcement in Hinckley, Ohio, will officially take command of the Van Buren Police Department on Aug. 8.

Keller, 33, was picked from a field of more than 150 prospective candidates for the job which calls for a $25,000 yearly salary and also $3,000 for moving expenses from Ohio.

Keller had earlier said that he was excited about the new challenge and looked forward to the new position. "I know we can build one of the finest police departments in the state because the potential is there," Keller said.

Keller takes over amidst a recall that is aimed at ousting five members of the board, including township supervisor Patricia Cullin, clerk Doreen Craven, treasurer and police commissioner Tom Welty and trustees Tim Toohey and Chester Wojcie.

On Tuesday, the board and the residents of the township will know the fate of the five elected officials.

Keller has informed the board that no matter what the outcome of the recall, he is bent on "setting up a chain of command that would streamline operations and eliminate any political overtones that could be attached to the department."

Keller also has stressed that his goal would be that his men become "highly visible and a low response time for the department."

"I think I could sum it up and I will attempt to do as 'response and service' will be this department's motto," he said.

Mrs. Cullin said she was "extremely pleased to get a professional as Keller to head the department."

Keller is a graduate of the FBI Academy and was hired as the first full-time chief in Hinckley four years ago. He was selected for the Van Buren position after written and verbal examinations organized by Bartell & Bartell Associates of State College, Penn., a firm hired by the township to screen candidates and study the local police department.

Trooper slain

Inkster resident is bound over for trial on murder charge

After a brief hearing in District Court, a man accused of killing a state trooper during the racial unrest 14 years ago was bound over for trial in Circuit Court.

The defendant, Darryl Summers, was extradited from West Germany to stand trial in the death of the state trooper.

Darnell Stephen Summers, an Inkster musician who moved to Europe several years ago, was in District Court yesterday before visiting Judge John Seiler, of the 29th District Court, to offer arguments why he should not be bound over for trial for first degree murder.

Summers was arrested in Germany and extradited here. Police allege that Summers shot and killed Det. Robert Gonser in the early hours of August 8, 1968 while Gonser was investigating a series of sniper attacks on police in Inkster.

The arrest culminated a 14-year investigation into the slaying of the State Police detective who was killed while the victim sat in the police vehicle.

Summers, 35, was arrested on Feb. 20 in Worms, West Germany, by Interpol, and international police organization, on a first-degree murder warrant issued in June 1981 by Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan.

Summers' return to the United States was held up by extradition proceedings which ended last month. When he got off the plane at Detroit Metropolitan Airport he was accompanied by Det. Lt. John Shewell of the Ypsilanti State Police post who flew to Frankfurt, West Germany to take custody of the suspect.

Summers was arraigned on Wednesday, July 21, in 22nd District Court in Inkster. He was remanded to the Wayne County Jail without bond.

A large crowd of spectators was in the courtroom during the pre-trial examination.

Two skip debate

There were two empty chairs Wednesday evening when candidates for the State House of Representatives in the 37th District got together to debate issues.

Jim Kosteva and Roger Cadaret offered their views to area voters as Betty Jo Price and Edward Mahalak declined to debate.

Cadaret and Kosteva each presented their perspectives on: education, job creation, taxation, social programs, landfills and transportation. The candidates then responded to questions from the audience.

The debate was moderated by Wayne Mayor Patrick Norton.

Best food buys for the month of August

Michigan food shoppers will find August 1982 to be one of the best months of the year. A wide selection of seasonal state-produced fruits and vegetables is coming to market, beef prices are slightly lower, poultry prices are steady and egg prices have increased less than predicted.

While the U.S. Department of Agriculture wrestles with the definition of barbecue, America's backyard cooks are proving that almost any meat can be grilled. First-cut chuck roasts (wrapped in foil), top-round steak (marinated first for best results) and porkburgers are some of the more economical cuts replacing traditional steaks.

Budget minded cooks may have to continue this economical action as retail pork prices continue to climb and retail beef prices are only slightly lower. Analysts say the high cost of money is one key factor that is holding down pork production. (The June USDA report showed pork supplies running below last year as much as 15 percent through mid-1983)

The reduced pork supply is helping to maintain beef prices so further reductions in beef will be minimal. Total cattle on feed at the 13 major feeding states is up 4 percent over a year ago, but, considering high cow slaughter rates, beef industry analysts believe herd expansion this year will be small.

Broilers and turkeys will continue to be economical choices during August. Shoppers may want to add eggs to the shopping list more often, as an inexpensive meat alternate.

Fresh produce shoppers will find Michigan's harvest basket filled to overflowing this month. For starters, sweet cherries and red tart cherries are still available. Inquire at any farm or orchard market with freezer facilities or in the produce department of the state's largest retail cooperatives.

Blueberry production is at the seasonal peak this week and will continue until September. Blueberries are widely available from supermarkets, city markets, roadside markets and U-pick operations. Blueberries are an ideal fruit for beginning pickers, since you literally can pick a bucket full in a few minutes.

Michigan's peach crop will peak about the third week in August. Although the national crop is down about 25 percent, Michigan has a larger crop than last year.

Calls to buyers indicate excellent quality cantaloupe are coming from local growers. More and more Michigan growers are also producing some of the specialty melons such as Crenshaw and Persian.

Apple fanciers who have had it with out-of-state imports will want to look for Paula Red (or Paulared) apples, a home-grown, late summer apple with all the good qualities of a top fall apple. It's slightly tart flavor is so thirst-quenching it could inspire a new pop flavor.

A backyard cookout wouldn't be complete without a salad. Start with head lettuce from California or a combination of greens (endive, escarole, Romaine) grown right here in Michigan. The cucumber slices, tomato wedges, green pepper rings, carrot slivers and radish roses probably all originated on a Michigan farm.

Encore features Romulus talent

Anti-AFC drive fizzles

A drive to stop the proliferation of Adult Foster Homes in the area fizzled last week when only a handful of persons showed up for a quickly called meeting organized by the "Homeowners Ending Legislative Piracy."

"Obviously we're disappointed," said Cheryl Jones, of 17000 Elwell, "we're hoping that people will become more aware at what the state is doing. I believe that we can mount up more support in the future."

At least four families residing on Elwell have spoken out against a proposed adult foster care home proposed on Elwell Street. The four families have formed "HELP."

Van Buren presently has four licensed AFC homes and there are two more applications waiting approval. Applications have been submitted for the foster care homes for 17100 Elwell and 44010 Burtig.

Many of the surrounding communities also have been approached to house AFC homes, and there have been similar protests. Most are concerned over the decline of property values if such homes penetrate their areas; some have expressed fears of harm being inflicted on children by the inhabitants in the AFCs.

HELP also pointed out "that they are deeply concerned about the lack of accountability in the placement of AFC homes."

In a flier mailed to most newspapers and residents, HELP stated that: "The house next door to you may be converted to an institution for the mentally retarded and there's nothing you can do about it."

The state has jurisdiction over the issuance of AFC homes, although local municipalities and townships must hold a public meeting when and if a license is pending.

INFANT'S FIRST HOME CLEANING

Home dental care should really begin before a baby has a single tooth. Plaque can form on the gum pads just as it forms on the teeth. While mother cleans her baby from top to bottom every day, she sometimes forgets that juice, formula, cereal, milk and so on, leave debris in the mouth. A piece of gauze can be used to wipe the gums after the last feeding of the day, and this may help to reduce gum inflammation which is especially important as the child begins teething.

Many dentists feel that plaque-caused inflammation of the gums is a factor in teething difficulties, and if plaque is removed regularly, the teething process will be more comfortable. The cleaning, of course, is to be continued after the first teeth appear.

One technique that has been used successfully is for the parents to sit on chairs facing each other, and while one parent supports the legs, the other holds the child's head softly in his or her lap and gently wipes the teeth with gauze from behind the head.

Craig Carter--'model' teen

Craig Carter displays a few of his trophies

Craig Carter is a quiet young man with a slow smile and easy manner. He appears to be an average 15-year-old student preparing to enter tenth grade at John Glenn High School. He likes to roller skate, plays football, runs track and is a fairly typical teenager... with one minor exception.

Craig Campbell is also Mr. Teen Michigan 1982. Mr. Teen Northern United States 1982 and also came close to being named the national Mr. Teen contestant in a recent competition held in Louisville, Ky.

The slow smile beginning, Craig explained that he began his modeling competition on the heels of his sister's dance lessons. The teacher at the American Dance Academy suggested that Craig who accompanied his sister to her sessions might enjoy adagio dance lessons and his proficiency encouraged his instructor to urge him to take modeling lessons. After only five modeling sessions, Craig had progressed so well, his teachers urged him to enter his first regional contest, with modeling students from other schools and dance academies vying for honors. He was the undisputed winner in his regional competitions and moved up to the state contest... that title safely achieved, he then qualified for the national competition. Craig and his mother, Andrea, admit his rise through the ranks of the contests has been pretty rapid, but Craig obviously enjoys what he's doing.

"I've made a lot of new friends and learned a lot," he said. He also noted that he now feels he's ready to attempt to take on the professional world of modeling and is in the process of preparing a photo portfolio and visiting the local modeling agencies in an attempt to begin a professional career. He is also fairly confident, he said, that professional modeling may be his chosen vocation.

In the five instructional sessions Craig attended, he learned how to walk, how to smile, how to project personality and the correct posture for looking the best in front of judges. He also had to learn patterns of modeling for "Form," including turns used in showroom and runway modeling.

He then moved into the classification dubbed "Sophisticate" modeling where he learned the art of showing clothes to the best advantage and was required to invent and perfect his own routine. While his instructors taught him the proper procedures for the one minute routine, it took Craig nearly four weeks to perfect the display to best suit him and the image he wanted to project.

Craig claimed he really never had too many doubts about attempting the modeling competition, but his mother had some trepidation regarding what his friends might say. And what did they say? "Nothing. They just say nothing or they think it's great. I've never had any rassing or teasing about it," Craig explained.

In the "Form" modeling competitions, Craig usually wears a brown sport coat, shirt, slacks and tie, presenting a very casual, yet well-dressed appearance. For the more formal sophisticate classification, he dons a well-fitted tuxedo to strut his style before the critical eyes of the judges usually representatives of national modeling agencies.

The judges occasionally write tips down for the contestants on the score cards which can be taken by hopefuls to see exactly how they might improve their performance.

"It is very draining," Craig said, "not so much physically, but on your nerves." He admitted that while state competition was really not too tough on him, he had some real qualms and felt the pressure of competing before nearly 3,000 people at the national contest.

"Craig didn't feel he had done well in the first interview, so he felt pressured to do better in the second. Then he wasn't happy with that, so he really was under strain in the sophisticated modeling presentation," Mrs. Carter explained. "He really did well though," she smiled.

Craig contends that he doesn't worry about his looks and really just takes things in stride.

In some competitions, Craig competes not only against other young men for the modeling titles, but against hopeful young women also seeking to break into professional modeling through the competitions. "That's tough," Mrs. Carter explained, "there are those cute little girls with their hairdos and makeup. It isn't easy, but Craig has done very well so far," she said.

She and her husband, David, who owns Carter's Corvette Collision, have been Westland residents for eight years, and are both very supportive of their son's ambition.

During competitions, Craig is judged not only on his appearance but on his smile, self-confidence, attitude and ability to speak including diction, eye contact and goes through rigorous onstage and private interview sessions with the judges who rate all contestants.

"During the private interviews they really watch what you say and ask a great many questions. You try to answer all their questions with one answer," Craig explained. He agreed that the judges weren't as interested in what he said as in the way he presented the response.

Craig's biggest booster is his grandmother, Irene Brooks of Dearborn Heights, who's always willing to help with an encouraging word or anything else he might need. Sister, Chereen, 6, who started it all, however, isn't the least interested in competing, and is more concerned with her dance lessons.

"This is something I really enjoy, and I hope have a future in it," Craig concluded.

Wayne public safety director heads law enforcement training council

Ray LeCornu, Wayne's Director of Public Safety, recently was elected chairman of the Michigan Law Enforcement Officers Training Council (MLEOTC).

Appointed to the 11-member council in 1980 by Gov. William Milliken, LeCornu will head an organization with a staff of 17 persons, who handle employment standards and training for law enforcement officers throughout Michigan.

According to Michigan law, all police officers must complete a 320-hour basic training course that includes a variety of subjects, covering nearly 50 areas of crime prevention and enforcement. LeCornu said he supports the philosophy that through mandated training the residents of Michigan will have the finest officers the discipline has to offer.

In addition to basic instruction, the Training Council recently established a pre-service training program at colleges and universities. Some 181 candidates completed such training at 10 different schools in 1980-81, working towards associate and baccalaureate degrees.

"Wayne police officers are trained beyond that which is mandated by state law," LeCornu reported. "All Wayne officers have been trained and are certified with the use of the radar unit (speed measuring device) as well as a relatively new method in the use of the baton, also known as the night stick."

"The new method is known as the 'Lamb Method,'" he added. "This method is less likely to result in serious permanent injury or death to a subject when it is necessary to use the baton."

LeCornu also pointed out that all Wayne police officers are trained in the use of firearms and auxiliary officers in the community are not allowed to carry firearms until they complete training and receive a permit from the Wayne County Concealed Weapon Licensing Board.

"I believe the City of Wayne is committed to training employees in areas related to their work responsibilities," said LeCornu, "but not to merely buying college degrees."

"A well-balanced combination of general education, job related training and continued self commitment to initiate work results in an extremely desirable employee. The type of officer in past years was identified as a 'dedicated employee.'"

LeCornu began his career in 1957 as a "beat" officer in Wayne, walking the downtown area. In 1973 he was appointed assistant city manager before being promoted to his present position in 1975. His responsibilities include the administration of both the Wayne police and fire divisions.

Along with serving as chairman of the Training Council, LeCornu is the president of the 320-member Michigan FBI National Academy Associates and this year was elected vice-president of the 650-member Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police.

The Training Council meets six times per year and provides a bi-monthly newsletter to law enforcement agencies throughout the state. Its budget for the 1980-81 fiscal year was $1.2 million.

Arson suspected

Fire leaves Wayne family homeless

Two Wayne house fires earlier this week have left one family homeless and resulted in an arson investigation.

Fourteen Wayne fire fighters battled a blaze at 34295 Winslow for some 30 minutes last Monday morning before getting the situation under control. Fire fighter Lee Gibelyou was treated for a minor blister injury at Annapolis Hospital and released.

Mrs. Elsie Gates, 51, owner of the two-story frame home and her 16-year-old son, who was in the basement at the time of the fire, both escaped injury. Fire Chief Ken Warfield reported that the fire was caused by a cord of an upstairs fan which ignited nearby bedding material.

At noon on last Tuesday fire fighters again returned to the south end of the community to extinguish a fire at the home of John R. Walker, located at 34823 Phyllis. The fire was confined to a rear storage area in the one-story dwelling, Warfield said.

No injuries were reported as firefighters worked for 15 minutes to control the fire, which resulted in an estimated $10,000 worth of damage throughout the building. An investigation into the cause of the blaze has been launched with arson listed as "probably," the chief revealed.

Warfield termed the fire on Winslow "one of the most severe house fires we've had in Wayne during the last year and a half."

"Fire was coming out of all the second floor windows when fire fighters arrived," he said. "the initial concern was to restrict it to that building before it spread to neighboring homes."

"Once again this shows the importance of having smoke detectors in the home," he continued. "this house had a smoke detector on the first floor but none on the second. If there had been a smoke detector on the second floor the residents would have been alerted much sooner."

Warfield said the attic fan which started the fire had been "running for possibly two days" and noted that the Gates family has no insurance to cover the estimated $25,000 worth of damage. Approximate value of the dwelling was placed at $35,000.

"It was gutted pretty good," explained Warfield. "the foundation might be able to be salvaged. As for the neighbor's home, there was only slight shutter damage to the house on the east."

Wayne fire fighters toiled for nearly 3½ hours before finishing cleanup operations at the site.

Wayne fire fighters battled a blaze on Winslow Street Monday morning for nearly 30 minutes. One fire fighter was treated for a minor injury.

Ordeal may be just beginning for Gates' household

By DENNIS NIEMIEC
Feature Editor

"I have no idea where we're going to live," lamented Mrs. Elsie Gates, a day after fire nearly destroyed the Wayne house she had lived in since 1949.

In this case the "we" refers to Mrs. Gates, 51, and four of her eight children who resided in the two-story frame dwelling at 34295 Winslow. On Monday morning a fire ignited by an upstairs fan resulted in an estimated $25,000 worth of damage at a house valued at approximately $35,000.

And to make matters worse, Mrs. Gates, who is divorced, has no insurance to cover the extensive costs.

"Some time back I was told I'd have to make some improvements to get insurance," explained Mrs. Gates, who is temporarily living with her daughter, Lynn Montgomery of Westland. "We were just beginning to make repairs, we had taken care of the roof and then..."

She didn't need to explain what happened next. Fire Chief Ken Warfield provided all the details.

According to Warfield, the lack of a second-floor smoke detector in the Gates' house had cost the family valuable moments in being alerted to the blaze. A neighbor eventually reported the blaze to the Wayne Fire Department.

"I was in the kitchen getting ready for work when I heard noise coming from upstairs," Mrs. Gates recalled. "But I thought some kids were just throwing things at the window. Then the man across the street was screaming at me to get out."

"My 16-year-old son was asleep downstairs and someone yelled for him to get out, too."

Fortunately there were no major injuries in what proved to be a 30-minute ordeal as Wayne fire fighters fought to keep the blaze from spreading to other dwellings. Mrs. Gates' three other sons who lived in the house were not present at the time.

For the Gates' family, however, the ordeal may be only beginning.

Employed at Wayne County Community College for 30 hours per week, Mrs. Gates nets less than $200 a week without personal benefits or insurance. She said she no longer receives the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) assistance that helped the Gates' household survive for years.

"They tell me that it could take six to 12 months to have our home repaired," Mrs. Gates explained. "My boys are carpenters and they could do some of the work but the house would have to be rewired."

Wayne Community Development Director John Zech said the damage at the house may be too extensive to qualify for housing rehabilitation funds but added that he planned to investigate the matter.

In the meantime, Mrs. Gates' youngest son, aged 10, is residing at his grandmother's house in Hillsdale. Another son is living at a friend's house.

"I just don't know what we're going to do," the mother admitted.

our opinions

Tuesday's election

Tuesday is a special day in the lives of many men and women who are seeking to become your representative in national, state and county governments. They want to sit on judicial benches to determine your life and mine.

They are seeking your vote. Your right and ticket to define and set legislative and judicial policy.

There is a saying that "bad politicians are elected by those who don't vote." Make sure that on Tuesday, Aug. 10, you pick the man or woman whom you feel will serve your community and country the best.

We believe that a newspaper has to be honest with its readers. Therefore, as a newspaper we feel that we haven't had the opportunity to interview all of the candidates who are running for office in this particularly important primary. We will not offer our endorsements until the General Elections set for November.

We do this with reservations, moreover, because a newspaper does have an obligation to single out the best and inform the public its findings as it sees it. But, take for example, the Wayne County Commissioner's Race in the 11th District. The candidates are: Milton Mack, Douglas J. Ritter, Gary G. Bates, J.B. Boroff, Berna V. Chenault, Edward D'Angelo, Margaret A. Leduc, Robert Smith and Leonard D. Wisniewski — and they are only the Democrats.

The Republicans in that race include Loren N. Bennett and Darrell F. Kress.

To be honest with our public we would have to at least spend a few minutes interviewing each candidate on the crucial issues that face the county — time doesn't permit this.

Our choice then is to let the electorate make the choice.

We have provided them with some pertinent information through our expanded voters' guide, which we hope will be helpful and a source of information.

We hope that, weary as people are about politics, you make it to the polls on Tuesday to make sure that a "bad politician" doesn't get elected because you failed to vote.

Capital punishment... not in Michigan, please

I was recently saddened when capital punishment was put on the ballot for a constitutional amendment allowing it to be used on those who commit various violent crimes.

They say that the majority of Michiganders favour capital punishment.

If Michiganders were informed on this issue, most Michiganders wouldn't favor this unconstitutional cruel and unusual punishment.

Capital punishment has been proven not to deter crime. Eleven states have higher murder rates than Michigan. All, except Alaska, have capital punishment. Alabama, California, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Nevada, North & South Carolina, and Texas have higher murder rates, and capital punishment.

In a letter to me, Congressman William Ford stated that capital punishment does not deter crime. Of the seven states with the lowest murder rates, five have abolished capital punishment. Over 1/3 of the states without capital punishment are in the lowest seven in murder rate. Washington DC has no death penalty.

Fourteen American cities have higher crime indexes. Twelve (86%) of these cities have capital punishment, yet 72.5% of all Americans live with capital punishment. Proving that higher crime rates come with capital punishment.

Over 10% of all those killed, in America, by capital punishment (between 1930 & 1979) were later found innocent. There were probably others really innocent, but never found innocent. You might say, so what about the 10%, what about the 90%? All I can say is, some day you could be one of these 10%.

Capital punishment is obviously used unfairly. 53.5% of those executed, from 1930-1979, were black. It doesn't seem likely that a 14-15% minority could or would commit over half of all of the violent crimes in America. Capital punishment has been known to be used to eliminate communists and various other pariahs.

According to F. Lee Bailey (a highly respected lawyer), it can cost the government (you) up to a million dollars to go through with one execution. Now, how much do you think it costs to put a criminal in jail? This cost could be cut if we put prisoners in special labour programs. If we murdered criminals, it would just be a waste of our tax money. If we kept capital punishment abolished, and introduced labour programs for those serving sentences for violent crimes, more of our tax dollars would go toward departments needing more money.

According to Willis X. Harris, President of Michigan Lifers Association, "People who do have the opportunity to think rationally can be deterred by the (capital punishment) threat..." I think that anyone who thinks rationally before murdering someone will either stop what they're doing because they know killing is wrong, or they will think that they will be able to get away with it.

It has also been proven that those who want to die, commit a violent crime to get the death penalty.

All three of our representatives (Ford, Levin, & Riegle) in Washington oppose capital punishment. Do they know something that the supporters of capital punishment don't know?

Yes, our crime rate is too high, but capital punishment is not the answer.

Sincerely,
Morton A. Potter II

Dirty politics

Tom Mooradian
Managing Editor

Dirty politics — has there ever been a political campaign that was immune to vandalism of signs, charges and counter-charges and legal action?

It is inevitable when two or more persons are running for the same office, some rakish supporter pops up with "proof of wrongdoing" by the other side.

If these would-be dedicated people would only put their energies to use constructively, their candidate would have a better chance of winning.

Our staff has felt the ravages of rampaging politicians and their supporters who believe that we should print everything they uncover about their opponents. We're happy to say that we can't.

We slip. Like there are letters that appear to be legit and because the 1,000 to 1 odds are that most letter-writers want to express their feelings and will sign their true names we don't check on them 100 percent, a letter will get by us — not libelous, of course — which bears a fictitious name and address.

It is consciously cruel and definitely cowardly to hide behind someone else's name to express an opinion you feel that should be publicized.

Over the more than two decades sitting on this side of the typewriter, I have never been ashamed of what I have had to say. And I, when writing an opinionated column, always use a by-line.

Why "dirty politics"?

I have never really been able to answer that question because early in life I was taught that you do unto others as you wish them to do unto you.

Fortunately the victims will be able to shrug this off, although they will wince at some of the material which is being circulated in Romulus. In Westland. In Van Buren. Is there a city or township immune?

I have always felt that the worst thing that could happen to one seeking an elected office, is to be elected to that office. There are some really fine candidates running such as William Ford, who is seeking reelection to Congress from the 15th District; and Bill Faust, who is the senate majority leader in Lansing and will represent the 12th district; Edward McNamara, who deserves the right to reorganize Wayne County as the first county executive; Milton Mack, a young Wayne attorney who is seeking to become the Wayne County Commissioner from the 11th District; and Justine Barns, who I feel should be the Democratic candidate for state representative in the 38th district.

These are personal observations. They are based on personal contact with these people — rare people — who are unselfish and who put public interest above all else, and have worked to make our communities just a bit better for all of us.

2 opposite opinions on Belleville City Charter

Vote 'No' to city manager... Smith

Having served the City of Belleville for 16 years as a member of the Planning Commission, Councilman, and mayor, I felt I should comment on the proposed new Charter for the City of Belleville. I wholeheartedly agree with Mayor Justin Emerson that the City of Belleville needs a new Charter and I think he has done an excellent job as Mayor.

Further, I support all the changes except the one establishing a City Manager form of government for the following reasons:

1.) It would be a more expensive form of government.

2.) More expenses mean more taxes. I do not want a stranger running the government or representing me in the City of Belleville. I wish a local person in that office so that at election time if the job is not being done properly, as you know, they can be voted out of office, a City Manager with a contract for no telling how long.

3.) A few years ago, we tried a City Manager in Belleville, which in my opinion, was a disaster and I am sure almost everyone remembers. I would prefer a Charter calling for a strong full-time Mayor to be elected by the people. If a decent salary is provided for the Mayor's job, there are plenty of qualified people that I am sure will seek the office that are long time, honored residents of the City of Belleville.

I have always been a people's rights person in all my elected offices as Councilman, Mayor, and County Commissioner, have voted for that, and I believe the City Manager form of government is taking people's rights away.

I would strongly recommend and urge a "No" vote on the adoption of the Charter. Let the Charter Commission go back and rewrite Chapter 8 of the new Charter calling for a strong Mayor form of government. The City of Pontiac recently went from a City Manager type of government, if my memory is correct reading the newspapers, to a strong Mayor type of government by a large majority in the election that was held.

Again, I strongly urge a "No" vote on the adoption of the new Charter.

Sincerely yours,
Royce E. Smith
240 W. Columbia
Belleville, MI 48111

'Yes' says Mayor Emerson

The primary ballot for the City of Belleville on August 10th will include the proposition for a revised City Charter. The people voted to revise the Charter and elected a Charter commission in November of 1981. I feel the Charter Commission has done an excellent job of revising and updating the Charter. Aside from deleting the parts that have become obsolete such as the Justice Court, Constable and some minimum changes in election laws, the most significant change in this Charter is the provision for a City Manager. I think it would be appropriate if it was called a Council-Manager type Charter.

Under the new Charter the manager will work at the pleasure of the Council. His responsibilities will be to implement and carry out the policies set forth by the Council on a full time basis.

Having spent a great deal of time at managing and observing the operations during the last eight years (one year as a Councilman and seven as Mayor), I feel this is needed and is economically feasible. The Manager's salary has already been provided for in this year's budget.

Copies of the proposed Charter are available at the Office of the City Clerk, 6 Main Street and the Fred C. Fischer Library, 167 Fourth Street.

It is my sincere hope that the citizens of Belleville will agree with me by approving the new Charter and voting YES on August 10.

Sincerely,
Justin Emerson,
Mayor
City of Belleville

JUSTIN EMERSON

Challenges capital punishment

EDITOR: Oakland County prosecutor and Republican candidate for governor, L. Brooks Patterson and his enthusiastic supporters have unfortunately succeeded in placing the issue of capital punishment (death penalty) on the November general election ballot.

If approved, this proposal would eliminate the existing ban on capital punishment contained within our state's constitution for over 136 years.

Even though I and many others will diligently campaign for the defeat of this issue, I clearly understand that this measure will be accepted by the overwhelming majority of Michigan's electorate.

Unfortunately due to selfish political interests on the part of Mr. Patterson, the death penalty will be an emotional issue and will certainly cause irreparable divisiveness within the State of Michigan.

Many studies have been completed on the issue of the death penalty and most have concluded that:

- The death penalty is not fairly applied; and
- The evidence about its effectiveness as a deterrent against murder cannot be substantiated.

As a pacifist and a Christian, I equally advocate that the State of Michigan, or by extension any government, should not be given the authority to terminate life.

If we are looking for real deterrence to murder perhaps the answer lies in an effective, honest and firm criminal correction process.

Many's inhumanity to man seems almost limitless, and our power to deal with it very limited indeed. For many of us, there is an understandable desire to encourage the use of nonviolent tactics to effect progressive social change. I am guided by a sense that all individuals have a fundamental right to live in peace and dignity.

And thank you for caring.

Mahalak praised

EDITOR — The people of the 37th state House district have an opportunity this year to do the state of Michigan a big favor: reelect an effective, knowledgeable and intelligent state representative — Ed Mahalak.

Since the day he arrived in Lansing 18 years ago, Ed Mahalak has been fighting for the people of the downriver area — fighting to help create jobs, fighting for the education of our children, and fighting to make the downriver area a better place in which to live.

As a member of the House Appropriations Committee, Ed Mahalak has a longstanding reputation as a leader in efforts to eliminate waste and ineffective state programs. He is a recognized expert on such important issues as the State Police, veterans' programs and transportation.

Because I am leaving state government, I am especially concerned about the quality of legislators who are elected this year. All of us in Michigan will be better off if the people of the 37th district re-elect an able and conscientious legislator: Representative Ed Mahalak.

Housely letter rapped

EDITOR — After reading the letter from Marge Housely, I was sick at heart. Have some practitioners of the sciences "retarded" their emotions at the Middle Ages' level of thinking?

To say our developmentally disabled citizens need and want just a full stomach and dry bottom makes all people with empathy and feeling for humanity much less human than we profess to be.

To lump mental illness and mental retardation into one form of need is like saying, "all neurological diseases and disorders are the same, i.e., Multiple Sclerosis, Muscular Dystrophy, brain damage from accidents, alcohol abuse, drug abuse, etc." All the above are not treated the same. Neither are mental illness and mental retardation, which have many known and unknown causes.

Group home living for a segment of our retarded citizens is just one phase in the total development in the treatment for each person to reach their highest potential as a human being and as a citizen in our community.

As a volunteer, I met many residents of our institutions for the developmentally disabled. After working on volunteer committees, I realized that all institutions can do is fill a stomach and keep bottoms dry — and not very well at that.

I have watched the same disabled citizens develop and grow beyond my most optimistic expectations in group homes. The ladies dress up in nylons and heels with their hair dressed by beauticians to go to a dance; the fellows wear ties and suits to go on shopping trips and to attend social events. They enjoy telling of their everyday experiences — workshop, school and social outings.

Have you ever imagined being blind and deaf? I know a young lady who is both. She can talk very well — granted it is a little loud at times, but remember, she is deaf. She can dress herself, fix her hair, brush her teeth, eat without spilling her food or drink. In my estimation, she is a genius to be able to do all the things she does, and enjoy life and people while being blind and deaf. She lives in a group home and has learned many new skills since leaving the institution. She needed the small group and personal help she receives in a group home.

I have lived, worked and paid taxes in Westland for 20 years. I have had 41 foster children of various abilities who have been accepted and loved by my community. I have worked for pay and volunteered for community organizations and church, so I have worked and lived 24-hours a day with people of lesser abilities than I.

It has been an interesting and fulfilling life and I will continue to work for community placement and community involvement for our retarded citizens as well as my community of Westland and all its citizens.

Trustee defends appointment

EDITOR — To respond or not to respond is the question. Although this course of action could be considered reckless by some, I have chosen to respond and carry out my responsibilities to my constituents up until the time they determine otherwise.

The issue is really quite simple — did we, the Van Buren Township Board, or did we not know of the past record of Richard Debs, the former Police Commander of Van Buren Township, before he was appointed to the post. The facts speak for themselves.

Mr. Debs applied for the position of Patrolman for the Township of Van Buren. As part of his regular responsibilities, the Police Chief was requested to conduct a pre-employment check on this candidate.

To my knowledge, using a standard procedure of investigation, as the township has historically always done with past applicants before, the results indicated no criminal history or negative background.

In that no negative information was uncovered, the Board of Trustees (not five but all seven) proceeded to appoint Mr. Debs to the position of Patrolman. Subsequently, he was appointed Police Commander with no further background checks run because he was already a member of the force.

One cannot quarterback the Chief for not finding the questionable information, for the check was considered routine.

However, it was equally unfair to criticize the Board for not having provided more information to the then Chief, so the check could have been more enlightening.

I did not have any more information to give and by the very nature of his position, as a professional Police Chief, a name should have been sufficient to accomplish the task. Additionally, correspondence from a Michigan State Police search as late as January 11, 1982, indicated nothing negative. This correspondence is on file at the township and a copy is attached.

At this point, I ask the concerned township citizens to stand in my place for a moment. If you received nothing negative of an employee's pre-employment check using normal procedures you have come to rely upon as being professional and accurate, would you stop the process and challenge the report?

I had no indication that there was anything amiss so our "Board" decision was made based on this information. The Van Buren 5, as we have been labelled, could be charged at most with lack of clairvoyance. When the need again arose to select a chief, the Van Buren 5, as labelled, more wisely contracted with Bartell and Bartell, Ltd., a professional police consulting firm, to put their trust in for a "pre-employment" check and recommendation.

In closing, I sincerely appreciate the zealotness of the residents for good township government and look forward to a better exchange of information on a regular basis through the newly created Citizens Public Safety Coordination Council.

Faust is lauded

EDITOR — For many years my active support of libraries, particularly public, school and university libraries, has brought me in contact with many of our state's legislative leaders.

I am writing today to acquaint you and your readers with information, and I hope insights, into one of the foremost "leaders" in our State Capitol. I use the word leader to describe Senator William Faust because I believe that it is an apt description of how he has used his intelligence, his honesty and integrity, his humanity and his practical wisdom to dispatch his responsibilities as a State Senator and as the Senate Majority Leader.

While I write from the perspective of seeing Senator Faust's significant support of library-related issues, I also have seen him make great strides as a leader in promoting improved communications between our legislators and our citizens.

I have seen him make great strides almost single-handedly in improving governmental accountability. I have seen him make great strides using both his personal energies and his legislative position in bringing greater economies to all aspects of our state's governmental operations. His energies have been directed as well to important environmental and educational concerns.

While I do not benefit by having Senator Faust represent the Senatorial District where I live, I do benefit as does every citizen in our state from having capable dedicated leaders such as Senator Faust making important decisions that affect my life and the lives of my family, neighbors and friends. I provide this glimpse of Senator Faust with the hopes that this perspective will help voters in his Senatorial District decide to return him to our state's Senate.

reflections

The doctor's secret

One evening at a dinner party a well-known doctor leaned across the table and said to me, "I read your column and if you promise never to reveal my name, I will tell you something that happened to me a few years ago that I've never been able to explain."

I told him I would never reveal his name and so for this column we will call him Doctor X.

It seems that about ten years ago Dr. X and his wife had gone up into the wilds of northern Canada with another doctor and his wife for a few days of relaxation, boating and maybe a bit of fishing.

"The cabin we had rented was a one room cabin, with a huge stone fireplace. After a day of hiking through the woods, and getting our boat ready for the next day's fishing, we were pretty tired, and decided to retire early."

"But as often happens with me, my tiredness didn't extend to my eyes, and sleep just wouldn't come. While our wives slept, Dr. C and I lay there in our respective beds and talked, when suddenly a picture flashed on the wall at the foot of my bed."

"I saw one of my patients staggering out of his bed in his home, and grasping for something to hang onto. I saw him fall to the floor. I saw his wife jump out of bed and lean over him."

"And then the picture faded. I told my friend what I had seen, describing it in minute detail, and as I finished another picture flashed on the wall."

"This time it showed my patient in the hospital, with an oxygen tent and nurses and doctors hurrying in and out of the room. I saw his wife sitting on a chair outside his door, wringing her hands and crying.

"Again I described to my friend what I was seeing. Then the picture was gone."

"I've got to go home," I told him. "That patient is one of my favorite people, and I know he will die unless I am there." I wakened my wife and the four of us immediately took off for home."

"When at last I reached the hospital I rushed in and sure enough, my patient was listed in serious condition. I rushed upstairs and into his room."

"His wife stood up and said, 'Oh thank God, you're here.' As she said this, my patient's eyes opened, and he said very weakly, 'I'm glad you are here, Doc. I would have died if you hadn't come. Now I'll get well.'"

"And he did. I really didn't do that much different from the treatment he was receiving. But he had faith in me, having been my patient for so many years, and that faith got him through."

"But what has always puzzled me is what happened when I saw those pictures on the wall? Is that a form of ESP?"

I told him that I thought it could definitely be classed as an ESP happening, and that, as yet there seems to be no explanation for what happened nor how it happened. But the fact that it did happen saved his patient's life. And what is almost as remarkable as the pictures on the wall, is the faith that the patient had in his doctor, and that faith helped make him well."

abandoned; more and more people being forced to leave — the area, by rights, should look sad and dead.

It doesn't. There is vitality here, kept alive by the sheer gutsiness of the ones who will stay here forever. There is no secret to it: the vitality springs from love.

The ones who stay here — come here love this place. They love it all the more after they've gone away and come back again.

It's in our blood, this place, and nobody who has ever been here long enough can go away and stay away forever.

From grama's porch

FULTON — On the porch steps of my grandmother's house. What is there about Grandmother's houses that bring back pleasant memories and comforts of the womb? I feel content here and yes-safe. Far from city pressures and city fears.

And, as the years go by, I feel the need, more and more, to come here.

Grama (that was how she signed her name) isn't here anymore. Her grave is under a spreading tree in the Ahmeek Cemetery amid the sea grasses and her beloved wildflowers. The keepers of the cemetery, in their infinite wisdom, said "no" to manicured landscaping and same-shaped headstones, and it is as pleasant a place as any up here.

The people here are as different from the "down-staters" as is the terrain. The isolation, the distance from the big cities, keeps this culture separate and unique — a culture the people here work hard at maintaining.

Their way with words, much like the Pennsylvania Dutch, is grating to some (especially to those trying to get away from it — to assimilate into the "real world"), but become more and more pleasing to me. As though the language ceased to be, this place would cease to be.

Mother Nature is in charge here, on this small point of land pushing into the mighty and unpredictable Lake Superior, and the people know better than to try to do battle with her. Instead, they bend, adapt — enjoy.

The raging winters are a source of pride here to the ones hardy enough to endure them. The others make no apologies.

It's the way life is when Mother Nature has the upper hand.

The climate, the terrain, the vegetation is as near as you can get to Scandinavia, I hear. In pictures sent from Finland of relatives still living there, I see in the background chinked log buildings constructed in the same fashion as those I once thought were unique only to here.

Those far away people in those photographs are standing by Mountain Ash trees as big as the one that once stood in Grama's front yard.

The wildflowers are the same; the rocky farmland is the same. Fish and dairy products are the mainstays there, as they are here in the Copper Country.

The mining industry here, crucial to the economy since the beginning, is dead and gone. More and more, I see houses being

A Family Reunion

LUNDE FAMILY REUNION

August Six thru eight, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty Two
By Jeanette Lund

*From Norway a family sailed the sea
To America, the land of the free.
One hundred years ago they made their debut
In August eighteen hundred and eighty two.
Mother, father and ten children arrived here
Bringing to the United States much cheer.
One daughter married a bridge engineer
And they returned to Norway for his career.
The youngest of their seven sons is our host
Eldar Alvarstein, about whom we boast.
A unique reunion has just now started
The Lund family is being charted.
From Norway Eldar will bring his own folk
To swell the number by this master stroke.
Five fine committee members of our clan
Arranged and set up this fantastic plan.
The Sheraton University Inn
Corroborated with them, blessing our kin.
Let us thank God for this jubilee
And the power it gives to posterity.*

AIRMAN RUGGIRELLO

Airman Theodore S. Ruggirello, son of Sam and Zella Ruggirello of 9408 Van Buren, Belleville, has been assigned to Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas, after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

Armed Services

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the aircraft maintenance field.

He is a 1981 graduate of Belleville High School.

— Pvt Brian K. James, son of Robert L. and Janice M. James of 20749 Martinsville Road, Belleville, has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire crewman.

Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in the rifle or mortar squad.

Employment problems of older workers

By KENNETH E. OETTL

Michigan Office of Services to the Aging

The question of what special problems older workers experience is not easily answered. There are numerous myths about the abilities or lack of abilities of older workers, particularly regarding their health, learning capabilities, and the cost of fringe benefits and pensions plans. In fact, older workers are productive, trainable, have fewer accidents, stay with the company for a long period of time, have good attendance and have many other valuable assets.

The high unemployment rate and the State's current economic condition is a problem for everyone. But unlike other age groups, older workers must face their own negative attitudes about working, the myths, and pervasive age discrimination in the work place.

However, all is not gloom. All of these factors can be overcome through information and education. Part of the activities of my agency, the Office of Services to the Aging, is to work in this area.

Unfortunately, for one out of every three couples and one out of every six single persons, retirement signals the beginning of the road to economic hardship.

If that person is a woman, the situation is even worse. Forty-nine out of every 50 older women experience financial hardship. The income of these retirees is not adequate to cover inflation, the rising cost of health care, taxes, and the various other costs of retirement living. The solution to these financial realities, like the problems, are complex.

First, older workers must overcome their own negative attitudes about working. Then they must overcome any negative attitudes potential employers might have. Those who do encounter age discrimination should contact the Michigan Office of Civil Rights immediately.

In dealing with employers, the Office is involved in encouraging employers to consider alternate workstyles to accommodate the needs of all workers, especially those who are older. We've found many employers do not know that according to census projections by the year 2010, 40 percent of the work force will be 45 years old or older. Some older people will have many reasons for working. At the top of the list are financial necessity and the quest for life satisfaction.

Whatever the reason, the solution for many people will be part-time work within the financial restrictions of their Social Security benefits. For others, postponing retirement may be a viable option. Alternative work arrangements, like retraining, deployment, phased retirement, flextime, shared jobs may be the most viable choice for still others.

Retraining is providing training to a worker in a new area. Deployment is demotion by agreement, sometimes accompanied by retraining. Phased retirement is an alternative which allows those employees approaching retirement to take time off for long periods without pay, at no reduction of pension or benefits. For example, one plan allows a person to take 40 paid days off during the four months preceding retirement. And, flextime offers variable work hours, as does job sharing.

The Office is currently engaged in a survey of businesses that utilize these employment options. Once the survey is completed, the information will be distributed throughout the state. This will become part of our ongoing public information efforts to educate the public, older people and employers about the positive benefits of older workers.

Information about companies engaged in these works alternatives, and the positive contributions of older workers is available from my Office. For more information contact the Office of Services to the Aging, P.O. Box 30026, Lansing, Michigan 48909-30.

Diners' views sought at C.W. Chicken & Ribs

Neil Young (center), owner of C.W. Chicken & Ribs in Canton, is dedicated to providing the finest broasted chicken and barbecued ribs in the area. Future expansion of the restaurant's menu and remodeling of the facility are being planned. Among those assisting in the operations are Jeanette Person (left) and Beth Johnston. Photo by Steve O'Leary.

By DENNIS NIEMIEC
Feature Editor

Neil Young, owner of C.W. Chicken & Ribs in Canton's King's Row Shopping Center, has some definite goals in mind. And he wants all area customers to help him.

"We want to continue improving our services and satisfy everyone we possibly can," said Young, who assumed management of the establishment some six months ago. "That's why I like people to call us and tell us what they think of our chicken, ribs or anything on the menu."

What he's been hearing lately from diners has been very encouraging.

"A lot of people have told us that the portions are too large," Young laughed. "Most people can't finish everything. They've been coming from miles away for the ribs — they're so tender that you can eat them without a fork and knife."

Although Young estimates that 90 percent of the business at C.W. Chicken & Ribs is of the carryout variety, the restaurant does offer five large booths for dining convenience. Future plans call for an extensive remodeling of the facility, located at 7337 Lilley (at Warren).

As for the menu, well it reflects Young's first act upon purchasing the restaurant — all prices have been lowered to keep them under the competition.

One of the popular specials is a three-piece chicken dinner with roll, cole slaw and broasted potatoes or fries for $1.80 every Monday and Tuesday.

In addition to the broasted chicken and ribs, the menu features cod and perch dinners as well as shrimp dinners and buckets. A sampling of the selections reveals reasonable pricing: chicken snack (two pieces for $2), rib snack ($4.70 and dinner $6.60); shrimp snack (five pieces for $3.40) and dinner (eight pieces, $4.70), cod or perch snack (two pieces, $2.60) and dinner (three pieces, $3.60).

The snacks and dinners are served with choice of potatoes, cole slaw and roll and may also be purchased with only the meat at reduced prices.

Combination dinners include chicken and ribs ($5.90), fish and shrimp ($4.90) and ribs and shrimp ($6.90). Buckets of chicken range from eight to 24 pieces ($5.90 to $16.25 with potatoes) while buckets of shrimp feature from 12 to 24 pieces ($6.98 to $13.80).

"Broasted chicken is much different from the deep fried chicken you find at most places," Young explained. "The meat is cooked under pressure so that it remains moist, even the white meat."

"The sauce used on the ribs comes from a special recipe," said Young in describing the distinctive flavor of the ribs. "And the broasted potatoes we serve taste like a baked potato."

C.W. Chicken & Ribs is open from 4 to 9 p.m., Monday through Thursday; from 4 to 11 p.m. Friday; 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Saturday, and 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sunday. For delivery service ($1 charge), call the restaurant at 459-6880.

Along with its dining and carry-out offerings, the restaurant staff handles a growing catering service for any party or special occasion. Information on available entrees and pricing can be obtained from Young at the restaurant.

Young is assisted in the operation of C.W. Chicken & Ribs by Manager Robert Young and Assistant Manager Jeanette Person.

Tips for trimming excess line will provide 'third hand'

By BOB BREWSTER
Special to Playtime

One of the most difficult things for a fisherman to do in his boat is trim away excess monofilament line after tying on a new lure.

Imagine the problem. With one hand he holds the lure and with the other he holds the excess line under tension. Now, with his third hand he opens a knife and cuts away.

None of us has three hands, but most anglers wish they could find an occasional helping hand. Trimming away excess line is important because you want to make the cut as close to the knot as possible, thereby eliminating any line which might interfere with the action of the lure.

Some additional third-hand needs are lure repair, hook sharpening, spooling new line on a reel, wire leader tying, and many other onboard chores.

For those times when two hands aren't enough, here's an idea that makes three-handed work simple. Somewhere along the gunwale of your boat, preferably near the fishing seats, mount one or two large paper clamps, the spring-loaded kind normally used to hold a dozen or so sheets of paper together.

Available in any office supply store, these have two projecting arms which are drilled in the ends to allow them to be mounted on a wall or board.

Fix the clamps in your boat so the gripping edges are turned upward. When you need that helping hand, press the clamp open, insert the line, hook or whatever you're working with, and the spring-loaded jaws will hold the object secure.

Murphy keeps 'em laughing

EDDIE MURPHY
(Columbia)

and early Carlin — not that Murphy's an imitation of them, he's not. He's Eddie Murphy. Comedian.

E D D I E M U R P H Y

Saturday Night Live has given us more stars than any other television show this side of Johnny Carson, John Belushi, Dan Aykroyd, Gilda Radner, Bill Murray. And it's been obvious to anyone that still watches the show that Eddie Murphy's name would soon be added on to the list.

As a matter of fact, they might as well change the name of the show to The Eddie Murphy & Joe Piscopo Show, because in effect they ARE the show. Murphy, who was only a background "feature" player last year, burst into stardom on this year's first show as Little Richard Simmons, a hilarious combination of, of course, Little Richard and Richard Simmons.

I don't remember ever laughing as hard as I did the first time Murphy did Buckwheat (of The Little Rascals), so it's only natural I find "Enough Is Enough" irresistible, it being one of the LP's two musical numbers.

It features a "duet" of his Buckwheat ("Un, Doo, Un Doo Tee!") and Simmons ("I told her 'just take that dress, and your fat bulging thighs, and get out'") set to a beat straight off an Aerobic record. Luckily, it's funnier than it is disco.

As for the stand-up material, it's great. Eddie Murphy was doing stand-up comedy before he landed on Saturday Night Live, and he combines experience with his new found fame for some very funny routines. Like "Effrom," a guy that once totally flattened Eddie in a fight. "Now, I drive by his house and let my wrist hang out the window and say 'Take a look at this watch...'"

And, to answer the question as to why someone would want to kill the Pope, Murphy figures the guy thought "Hey, I wanna go to hell and I don't wanna have to wait in line!"

As to the "Black Myths," Murphy says, "If you're going to believe the myths, believe ALL the myths..."

Although it's obviously not for everyone (lots of, as the sticker on the front of the jacket states, "offending language"), Eddie Murphy's first career move outside of the realm of television is a good one.

A very good one in fact, especially if your tastes run to Pryor

Lunde immigration celebration set

The 100th anniversary of the original immigration of the Lunde family from Norway to the United States will be commemorated at a 3-day celebration planned for Aug. 6 to 8 at the Sheraton University Inn of Ann Arbor. The family portrait above shows a bearded John Pedre Lunde and his wife, Louise, surrounded by their 10 children: Josephine (standing, from left), Fritjohf, Conrad (the grandfather of Mary E. O'Connell and great-grandfather of Mary Ellen Buckle, both of Belleville, who are on the party arrangements committee), Henry (father of Fred C. Lunde, 83, of Belleville) and Petra. The others include John Jr. (between his parents) and Agnes (from left), Fred,

Phillip and Doris. Descendants of the Lundes, who settled in Chicago on their arrival in 1882, will travel from New York, Maine, Maryland, Wisconsin, Illinois, Florida, California and Michigan for the reunion with 15 expected in from Norway. Seventy in all have sent their acceptances and will be in attendance at the Aug. 7 banquet. Guest of honor will be 70-year-old Eldar Alvarstein who instigated the centennial observance. Other party-planners include Sharon K. Hall, Joanne T. Roth and Catherine D. Hall, all of Detroit. (A special poem, "The Lunde Family Reunion", may be found on the Opinions page. It was written by 88-year-old Jeanette Lunde.)

Lisa Cox is recent bride; marries Steven Arsenault

Among the recent June brides was Lisa Cox, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cox of 6342 Central, Romulus, who spoke her nuptial vows to Steven Arsenault of 15680 Scott Dr., Taylor, on June 25 at the Church of Christ in Taylor.

Some 45 guests were present for the single ring rite conducted by The Rev. Doyle Earwood at five o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional white gown designed with a high neckline enhanced with seed pearling, fingertip lace sleeves and a full train.

She wore a silk illusion veil and held silk white carnations, white roses, lilies of the valley and baby's breath to complete her bridal finery.

Maid of honor for the summer wedding was the bride's sister, Lorraine Cox of Romulus, who donned an apricot-colored frock complemented by a halo of white and apricot roses and a bouquet of beige and apricot roses.

In similar attire with tiny apricot roses in their hair, the two bridesmaids were Kimberly McPhee and Cathy Hagedon, both cousins of the bride from Dearborn Heights.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arsenault of 3501 Anna, Trenton, the bridegroom asked his friend, Ron Barger of Taylor, to serve as best man. Ushers were Ken Buzo, Mike Alaviero, Paul Myers and Gordy Daisy, all of Taylor.

At the reception held at the American Legion Hall in Garden City, the 150 guests were greeted by Mrs. Cox in a floor-length peach-colored gown and Mrs. Arsenault, the bridegroom's mother, in pale blue. Both wore corsages of roses to match their outfits.

Since returning from their three week honeymoon at Banff, Alberta, Canada, the newlyweds took up residence at 15680 Scott Dr., Taylor.

The new Mrs. Arsenault is a 1980 graduate of Romulus High School. Her husband graduated from Taylor High School and spent two years studying business finance at Eastern Michigan University. He is now employed by Dobb's House of Catering in Romulus.

Some 130 relatives gathered Sunday, July 25, at St. Stephen's church grounds in New Boston for the first reunion ever of the combined Chudzinski-Szymanski families, the former group being descendants of the late Joseph and Katherine Chudzinski whose old homestead is located on Savage Road, Belleville.

With members of the Kopas family: Anita Glinski of Almont;

Loretta Renke, Mary Lee Treder and Tony Kopas of Romulus and Karen Boyston of Cincinnati, O. as instigators, the clan was contacted by telephone and word-of-mouth.

A literal "groaning board" featured the ladies' special casseroles and desserts and had uncles, aunts, brothers, sisters and cousins filling their plates for the 2:00 dinner. Horseshoes, volleyball and competitive games followed.

The group traveled from Elmyra, Temperance, Tecumseh, Ann Arbor, Union Lake, Warren, Detroit, Allen Park, Troy, Almont, Canton, Livonia, Ypsilanti, Romulus and Belleville for the occasion. Out-of-staters were from Hudson and New Port Richey, Fla.; Cincinnati, O. and Glenview and Niles, Ill.

Mrs. Mary Michlewicz at 81 was the eldest member present.

Oberle-Dillingham vows repeated at St. Anthony's

The newly wed Daniel J. Oberles spent their six-day honeymoon at Mackinac Island and St. Louis, Mo. before taking up residence in Troy.

The May 29 ceremony which made Carolyn Dillingham Mrs. Oberle was held at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with the Rev. Raymond S. Skoney presiding at the four o'clock rite.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Dillingham of 44065 Harmony Ln., Belleville, the bride was escorted to the sanctuary by her father. For her wedding day she selected a toe-touching creation of white organza designed with a flounced off-the-shoulder neckline enhanced with Belgium lace.

The lace motif was carried out on her silk illusion veil which was cut in fingertip length and secured by a little lace headdress. Completing her bridal finery was a colonial arrangement of yellow and pink roses, pink and white carnations, lilac delphiniums and baby's breath.

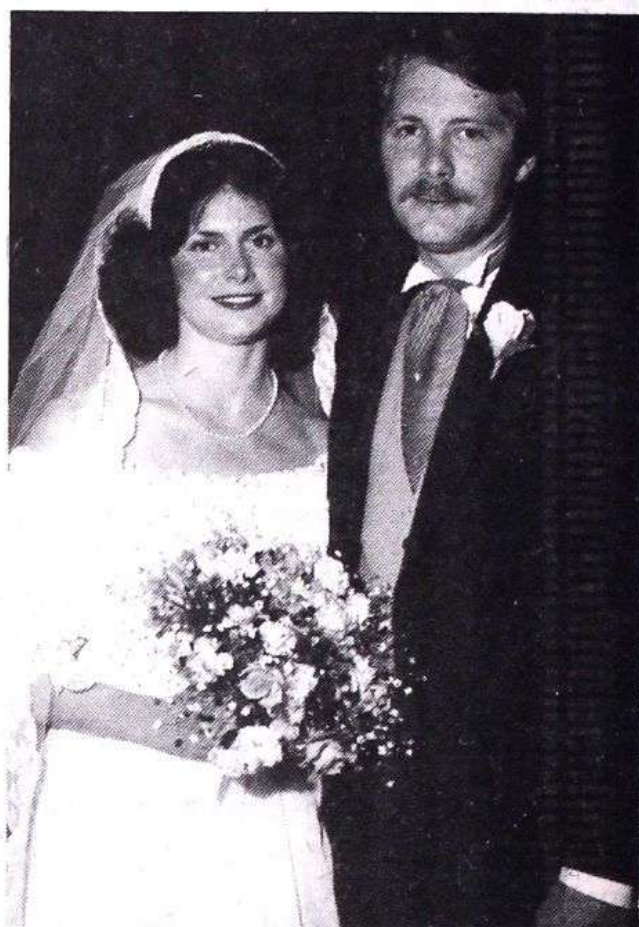

Preceding the bride down the aisle were Cathy Campbell of Canton, the honor attendant, and Nance Clark of Holland, MI, cousin of the bride, and Jeannie Hoover of Vernon Hills, Ill., sister of the bridegroom.

Miss Campbell was gowned in sleeveless aqua voile fashioned with a matching jacket with mid-elbow sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white and aqua carnations and lilac delphiniums and tucked matching blooms in her hair.

The bridesmaids' identical ensembles were in a shade of violet.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Oberle of 10 Wayside Dr., Ferguson, MO., the bridegroom asked his brother, Carl G. Oberle of St. Louis, Mo. to be best man. Groomsmen were Kerry Wall of St. Louis and Jim Hoover of Vernon Hills, Ill., the bridegroom's brother-in-law.

At the reception which followed at the Knights of Columbus Club in Wayne, the 150 guests were greeted by Mrs. Dillingham in an ice blue street-length dress to which she pinned her corsage of pink tea roses and carnations. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Oberle chose a yellow street-length frock with burgundy accents. She, too, was honored with flowers — burgundy roses and wine-tipped carnations.

MR. AND MRS. DANIEL J. OBERLE

An employee of Circle Airfreight Corporation in Romulus, the new Mrs. Oberle is a 1978 alumna of Central Michigan University. Her husband, a graduate of Westminster College in Fulton, Mo. in 1977, is with Occidental Chemical in Warren.

The rehearsal dinner, given by the bridegroom's parents, was held at the Lemontree Clubhouse.

Dexter Gospel Church site of Bramlett-Tittiger vows

A week-long honeymoon which included the World's Fair in Knoxville, Myrtle Beach, S.C. and Gatlinburg, Tenn. followed the May 15 marriage of Rita Tittiger of Milan and Michael Bramlett of Ann Arbor.

The Dexter Gospel Church was reserved for the couple's 4:30 p.m. wedding which was conducted by Pastor O'Dell before some 300 assembled guests.

The double ring rite joined the daughter of the Joseph Tittigers of Milan and the son of Dave and Bev Miller of Dexter and Jack and Opel Bramlett of Romulus.

Music for the occasion was sung by Mike and Jeff Bramlett and Bob Chips and played by Evelyn Chips, organist.

Presented in marriage by her parents, the bride appeared in a gown of polyester sheer knit over taffeta, the little raised bodice featured a stand-up collar over a Schiffli-embroidered front yoke, long clear sleeves and a chapel train.

She wore a veil of silk illusion in matching length trimmed in lace and completed her ensemble with a crescent bouquet of white daisies and roses accented with baby's breath.

The bride's six attendants, headed by maid of honor Mildred Guy of Belleville, donned yellow gowns with spaghetti strap bodices covered with sheer, embroidered jackets. Their hats were in yellow and they held arrangements of daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Nancy Wooten, Pat Butts and Brenda Lauff, all sisters of the bride from Milan; Debby Bramlett of Whitmore Lake, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, and Janet Harris of Belleville, his cousin.

Flower girls wearing little yellow frocks and carrying baskets of rose petals were Tracy Wooten and Rachel Butts, both four years of age.

Jeff Bramlett of Whitmore Lake was his brother's best man. The corps of ushers included two more brothers, Chris Bramlett and Mike Miller, both of Dexter and Calvin Hall, Paul Ryzner and Jeff Kelly, all of Belleville.

Gardenia corsages graced the coral gown worn by Mrs. Tittiger and the creme-colored outfit chosen by the bridegroom's mother as they greeted guests arriving at Immaculate Conception Parish Hall where the reception was held.

Employees of B&D Refrigeration in Jackson and Spring Arbor Distributors of Ann Arbor, the newlyweds are making their home at Chatham Village Apartments in Ann Arbor.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL BRAMLETT

The bridegroom, whose mother hosted a rehearsal dinner at Arbor Valley Inn, graduated from Detroit Engineering Institute in 1981 as a refrigeration engineer and system designer.

Two-family reunion draws 130 members

potpourri

By Lee Smith
Suburban Living Editor

Are you eating as much zucchini around your house as we are at ours? We're beginning to look just a little green around the edges but since the appeal is still there for the most (?) prolific of vegetables, yours truly is trying the squash, large and small, in as many variations as possible.

The latest recipe, found in my Soupcon Cookbook, now has "Tried — delicious!" written in the margin next to "Zucchini Custard." With an extra set of taste buds (we're three for awhile now that our world traveler is home) to help rate the dish which was literally scraped clean, it drew four stars and will definitely be served again.

This is not only tasty but easy to prepare. I used my 10-inch quiche pan since it should be baked in only one layer. So make sure you pick the right container for your size family. And if you're not overly wild about parmesan, eliminate the top dusting or go very lightly with it.

ZUCCHINI CUSTARD

4 medium to large zucchini, sliced 1/2-inch thick salt to taste

1 egg
1/2 cup sour cream
2 teaspoon seasoned salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup grated parmesan cheese
2 tablespoons butter or oil

Cook zucchini, covered, in salted, boiling water until tender. Drain very well. Put in shallow baking dish. Beat together egg, sour cream, salt, pepper and half the cheese. Pour over zucchini. Dot with butter and sprinkle with remaining cheese. Bake at 400 degrees for 15 minutes. Serves 4 generously.

WHERE'D IT COME FROM?

THAT PHRASE "BEST MAN" — how did it come to be used in connection with weddings? Now that the Altar-I-Do-Wedding March season is in full swing, you (especially those about to walk that aisle) might like to know it's Scottish in origin. And it goes back many centuries to the times when a prospective bridegroom simply kidnapped the woman of his choice and carried her away with him. Such a venture required courage and audacity as well as a good deal of man power.

So the groom selected the bravest of his friends to accompany him. They were known as "groomsman" — a term still used in some parts of the country (and here in Suburban Living) to describe ushers at a wedding. The closest and most valiant of the bridegroom's associates became known as the "best man."

Similarly the bridesmaids were originally the closest friends of the bride, the ones who helped (or pretended to help) defend her against her abductors. Thus the customs of a savage and primitive society are echoes in the names used today for the participants in the most formal and civilized of ceremonies — the church wedding.

ZODIAC TIME — AND LEO

The Leos born this week are in the company of funny man Dom DeLuise who started off the month of August by turning 49. The first also belongs to Arthur Hill (Hollywood's version) who was 60 and Henry Jones who reached 70.

Helena, Montana might have sent best wishes to Myrna Loy, a native daughter, who was 77 Aug. 2. The date is also claimed by Carroll (Archie) O'Connor, who was 58; Peter O'Toole, who was 50, and Beatrice Straight who was 64.

Singer Tony Bennett and actor Martin Sheen were 56 and 42, respectively, on the 3rd, the same day that perennial beauty Dolores Del Rio became 74.

Found no notable for today but tomorrow, the 5th, will be party time for WKRP's Jennifer. Loni Anderson, who was born in St. Paul, Minn. (and for whom no year is listed) and also for actor-director John Huston who'll be 76.

That famous Lucy we all loved for so many years, Lucille Ball has her 71st birthday Aug. 6. That same day, Robert Mitchum will be 65; Ella (whatever happened to her?) Raines will be 61 and way-out artist Andy Warhol will be 55.

Stan Freberg at 56 and B.J. Thomas at 40 bring the week to a conclusion with their Aug. 7 natal dates.

As for the experts' ideas on you Leo personalities: you seem to have more friends than Carter has peanuts. You don't really know how they all got there but somehow the numbers keep getting larger and you could use a secretary just to take charge of your social engagements.

You feel that people are funny, exciting and wonderful but when they move into your life too intensely, you find it can be a drain and closer to pain than pleasure. Peace and privacy are what you want then and when you go too long without them, you can become a cranky and irascible creature that no one likes to be around.

With those friends you truly care about, you are loyal, giving, sincere and faithful in all moments of need. Since you're often closer to your friends than your family, these ties can last a lifetime.

As for your health, Leo rules the heart and this organ is particularly vulnerable to long periods of sustained stress. In middle age, heart attacks and other coronary ailments are the Leo's danger area. In general, though, you are healthy, robust and have a horror of sickness. Being caged up and physically incapacitated panics you. However, your inordinate impatience will not let any illness linger.

Plymouth, Ypsilanti and Belleville.

David Hamilton, reunion president, led the business meeting with assistance from Kathy Willoughby Nicalef, the secretary. New officers elected for 1983's gathering were Mark Riggs, president, and Fred and Barbara Flavell, secretaries.

Kenneth Eccles is Harvard student

Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass. has been the home-away-from-home this summer for Kenneth Eccles, the son of Ralph and Yvonne Eccles of Van Buren Street, Belleville.

Having scored among the top 750 students throughout the United States on PSAT and ACT tests, Kenneth was invited to study at the prestigious university between his junior and senior years at Belleville High School. During his eight weeks of classes, he was the only high school student among 20 college and graduate students taking Latin which earned him eight hours of college credit. His elective course, calculus, merited another four.

Kenneth, who has maintained an A-average all through his schooling, has received offers from Harvard as well as all the U.S. military academies but as yet is still undecided as to his future schooling.

Huron reports first case

Local horses threatened by equine infectious disease

The first horse stricken with Equine Infectious Anemia in 1982 in the Wayne County area was di-agnosed as a positive carrier on the last week of June in Huron Township.

"Naturally this caused a great deal of concern and some panic by area horsemen," said Betty Basch and in a step to counter-act this panic, a meeting was called at Beuthin's indoor arena on Merri-man Road, Dr. Cole, State Veteri-narian, met with approximately 85 horsemen on July 15, 1982.

Dr. Cole outlined a brief history of the disease which was first di-agnosed in France in 1843. The first confirmed case in the United States was in 1901. Since then $250 million dollars have been spent on research of the disease and there are still no real answers. There is still no vac-cine or treatment for EIA. There are three phases of the disease: Acute, Sub-acute and in-apparent carrier.

Acute E.A.I. is when the animal is visually sick. They will be off their feed, lose weight and act worn out all the time with no energy. Once a horse is afflicted with E.A.I. they will always have it.

However, they can only infect other horses when they are visually sick. A horse in the acute phase will die or have to be destroyed. In the sub-acute phase this horse will be visually sick and then seem to get better, and relapse. This could go on for some months, but eventually this phase will also be fatal. The third phase, the inapparent carrier, is the horseman's dilemma, as this horse shows positive to the diagnos-tic test for E.I.A. but is perfectly healthy.

The virus is carried in the bone marrow or the spleen of this horse. It will show up in the blood's anti-bodies but may never cause any problem. The chances are about a 1,000 to 1 that healthy horse would ever spread the disease.

Unlike encephalomyelitis, or brain-fever, the equine is the only known reservoir for E.I.A., therefore it cannot be transferred to man, or other animals. The biggest carrier or method of E.I.A. spread is the large horse fly and a hypodermic needle. The best way to prevent the disease is to keep your barn area as clean and bug free as possible, spray your horses and always use a separate sterilized needle for each horse when giving shots. The horse fly only lives about 48 hours and usually travels about 100 yards in his life span.

In Michigan in 1981 they quaran-tined 30 positive horses and 45 in 1982 so far. Although only about 25-30 thousand horses were tested (by the Coggins Test) of the approx-imately 175,000 horse population of Michigan, there is great concern. In this area there was only one horse tested positive in 1981 and now the one in 1982. These horses are quarantined for 30 days and then re-tested. If they continue to test positive, they must be kept on the owner's property. Many positive tested horses have been stabled side by side with negative horses for years and never passed the disease.

Dr. Cole says, E.I.A. is something to be concerned about, but don't panic or keep your horses from shows, trail rides or lessons.

All about 'The Bottle Law'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Brian A. Walters is an Attorney at Law engaged in the general practice of law in Van Buren Township. He is a 1977 graduate of Oakland University and received his Juris Doctorate from Detroit College of Law in 1980. While attending law school he clerked for the Chief Judge of the 14th District Court and worked for the Consumer Protection Agency of Wayne County. If you have legal questions, please write Mr. Walters in care of Associated Newspapers, Inc., 35540 Michi-gan Ave., Wayne, Michigan. His column will appear weekly in the ANP editions).

"THE BOTTLE LAW"

This law affects us whenever we buy pop or beer yet we probably do not know what it says. What does it say? Some of the pertinent sections are as follows:

A dealer shall not, within this state, sell, offer for sale, or give to consumers a nonreturnable con-tainer or a beverage in a nonreturn-able container.

"Beverage" means a soft drink, soda water, carbonated natural or mineral water, or other nonalcohol-ic carbonated drink; beer, ale or other malt drink of whatever alco-holic content. "Dealer" means an individual, partnership, corpora-tion, association or other legal enti-ty who sells or offers for sale to consumers within this state a beverage in a beverage container, including an operator of a vending machine.

A dealer shall not refuse to accept from a person an empty returnable container of any kind, size and brand sold by that dealer, nor re-fuse to pay to the person its full re-fund value in cash. The dealer does not have to give a refund if: (1) the beverage is consumed on the pre-mises and no deposit is received by the dealer, or (2) the empty return-able container does not state there-on the refund value of the container and the name of this state.

A dealer within this state shall not sell, offer for sale, or give to con-sumers a metal beverage contain-er, any part of which becomes de-tached when opened.

A dealer distributor or manufac-turer who violates this act shall be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than $1000.00 and costs of prosecu-tion. Every day a violation occurs is a separate offense.

'Re-enter job market'

PCHA to offer a refresher course in nursing skills

A nurse refresher course, de-signed to re-acquaint registered nurses with professional skills they need to re-enter the job market, will be offered by Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) begin-ning in September.

The 10-week course will be held Tuesdays through Fridays from September 14 to November 19. Classroom work will be conducted two days each week at the PCHA Annex Building, at the corner of Venoy and Annapolis roads in Wayne. Clinical work on the other two days each week will be conducted in the hos-pitals. Students may select the PCHA hospital of their choice for the clinical work.

Details about registration fee, course materials and employment opportunities can be obtained from Geraldine Farrar, R.N., PCHA's nurse recruiter.

PCHA owns and operates five hospitals: Annapolis in Wayne, Beyer Memorial in Ypsilanti, Herit-age in Taylor, Outer Drive in Lin-coln Park and Seaway in Trenton.

Mrs. Farrar explained that the purpose of the course is to offer a skill refresher to nurses who have been away from the profession and wish to return to work.

"We want to help the nurse feel comfortable about resuming his/her career," Mrs. Farrar said. "This course can help bring the in-dividual up-to-date on new aspects of the profession as well as give the nurse a refresher on the basic skills and knowledge learned as a nursing student."

Participants in such courses have varying backgrounds. Some may have been away from the field for only a few years, others for 20 years or more. The prior nurse refresher course offered by PCHA attracted one nurse who had been away from the profession for 25 years, while she raised a large family. Mrs. Farrar pointed out. After completion of the course, she returned to work in one of the PCHA hospitals.

As PCHA nurse recruiter, Mrs. Farrar is concerned with recruit-ment of nurses to the PCHA hospi-tals, retention of nursing staff, and enhancement of the nursing profes-sion.

Among the best

Although they didn't make it to the championship flight, Mike Vaught (center), Kevin Schaum (at left) and former tourney champ, Paul Wiekarak proved to be the best in the Canton's First Flight at the recent City Golf Championships staged at Fellow's Creek. Vaught shot a 157 to claim flight honors, however, the township honors went to Darrell Newsome who carded a 151 for the 36-hole tournament. Westlander Claud Johnston captured the 1982 tournament title with a 5-over-par 149. The 23-running of the tournament was sponsored by The Associated Newspapers and the six area communities, including Wayne, Westland, Inkster, Romulus, Canton Township and Garden City.

Close call

Romulus Class A softball leader is in battle to finish

Puffer Red continued to chase Total Petroleum for the title in the Romulus Parks and Recreation's Class A women's softball league. Picking up three big victories last week, Puffer's stayed a half-game out of first as the league-leading Total club escaped the clutches of the upset-minded Progressive Club.

In that duel, Total scored a run in the top of the eighth to pull out a 3-2 victory after Progressive led most of the game. The win kept Total atop of the league with a 14-3 record. Puffer Red is 14-4 on the season.

Diana Kampsen scattered five Progressive hits to chalk up the crucial victory. She gave up run-scoring singles to Linda Madej and Lori Gracyak.

Total, which drew first blood with a run in the first inning, found itself behind 2-1 after the second frame and failed to get the equalizer until the top of the seventh as McBride picked up "goose eggs."

McBride had her problems with

Peggy Hoppe who latched on to two singles while Karen Weber and Lisa Bratcher each had run-scoring singles for the winners.

Pitcher Diana Kampsen worked the eight innings for the victory.

Total also turned back Morgan Collision 8-4 as the winner titled the scoreboard for four runs in the first inning, then rallied for two runs in the sixth and seventh frames.

Kampsen again received credit for the win. She was tagged for 15 hits though with Patty Dick accounting for three singles. Tammy Groves and Jackie Richardson split four hits.

Lisa Zbikowski delivered 22 safeties with Karen Day driving home two runs with a single and double. Donna Ojibway connected for two singles while Anita Glaab doubled.

Puffer Red humbled F.X. Coughlin 30-4 as Priscilla Gray wielded a hot bat. She hammered five hits, including a triple and double and also had four RBIs. Theresa Gibson batted in three runs with a pair of doubled and a triple. Mate Rhonda Harris also had a triple and two singles.

Winning pitcher Sandy Holiday served up two singles to Kaye Masterson and a two-run double to Faye Elswick while Ann Philport got a run-scoring double.

Losing hurler Cheryl Michelin gave up a total of 28 hits.

Holiday posted a rare shutout as Puffer Red blanked Morgan Collision 20-0. The Puffer pitcher scattered five hits with Tammy Groves and Debbie Dick each getting two. Rhonda Johnson latched on to a single.

Debbie Mooman, the loser, was tagged for a homer and a single by Terra Gray who drive in three runs. Tera's sister, Tina, also had an excellent day at the plate as she stroked two singles. Rhonda Harris belted three singles and drove in two runs.

Puffer Red exploded for four runs in the bottom of the third to pull out a 5-1 victory over Progressive Club. Theresa Gibson and Kim Pitts each had two RBIs for the winners. Each also tripled.

Holiday yielded four hits, two each to Tammy Danyfield and Sharon Dugan.

In the only other Class A women's contest, Morgan Collision came up with four runs in the third to stop F.X. Coughlin 4-2 for its third victory in 18 starts.

Vickie Gross got to loser Cheryl Michelin for two RBIs, while Debbie Dick and Rhonda Johnson each stroked run-scoring singles.

Mooman, the winner, served up five hits, one of those going for a two-run single off the bat of Jill Kilgore. Cheryl Schmucker doubled for the losers.

Wolves capture title

With a near-perfect season record of 12-1, the Wolves claimed Divisional and City of Westland Youth Athletic Association Major and Minor West titles this year. The champs went on to defeat the Central East team 13-1 for the city championship. Members of the team are: Jimmy Gains (first row, from left), Tim Douglas, Chris Admitis, Tim Takach, Aaron Gleden, Erick Silver and Mike Oliver; second

Tryouts scheduled for Over 30 hockey

The Wayne-Westland Over 30 Hockey Association has scheduled a Saturday, Aug. 14 tryout date for players who plan to compete in the league this fall.

The tryouts will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Wayne Ice Arena, Howe and Annapolis.

Prospective players must come ready to play in complete hockey gear, including helmet. There is a $3 fee for the tryouts and further information may be obtained by telephoning Ed Spontack at 728-2657 after 5 p.m.

California team enters Anderson tournament

A California team will be represented in this year's prestigious Lenny Anderson Memorial Softball Tournament scheduled for Aug. 13-14-15 at Anderson Field in Wayne.

Making the trip from Los Angeles to compete in the 16-team tournament will be the Continental Jets, a team managed by Chuck Widel.

"We're obviously very pleased to have the Jets in this tournament," said Larry Quartuccio, tournament organizer and manager of the Schewe's Collision/Little Bill's ball club. "It's the first time we'll have an out-of-state team in this tourney."

Quartuccio said he didn't have much information on the California-based team, "but, if it's coming from California, you know they're going to have some fine players."

The tournament is named for Leonard Anderson, the first police officer to be killed in the line of duty from the Wayne Police Department.

The defending champ, Carriage House, out of Redford will be returning to defend its title.

The opening game will be played at 6:15 p.m., Friday, Aug. 13 at Anderson Field.

Among those teams that will be in the middle of the title battle are Joe Thomas', a Westland-based club, coached by Tom Tompkins and Jake's Lounge of Wayne, managed by Dave Conlin.

Other teams in the field and their managers are: A & J Telestars, managed by Joe Cooley, from Dearborn; Capt. Nemos (Belleville), managed by Harold Ballanger; Dubin Construction (Oak Park), managed by Al Rose; Esquire Theatre (St. Clair Shores), managed by Dave Schultz.

The field also includes: Greg's Emergency Room (Wayne), managed by Dean Minton; Law Auto (Redford), managed by Vic Law; Little Bill's Trophies (Redford), managed by Joe Heimbuch; Don Massey Cadillac (Plymouth), managed by Jim Hauncher; New World (Dearborn Heights), managed by Joe Volante; Pittman's Installations (Wayne), managed by Rick Pittman and Sonar S.C. (Canton), managed by Ray Neely.

3-game cushion

Binny's zeros in on title

With a three-game cushion over the second place Chuck's Party Store, undefeated Binny's is in reach of the Westland Parks and Recreation Class A Women's Softball Championship.

Binny's has whipped up 12 consecutive victories in as many trips to the diamond and has a comfortable margin over the second place Chuck's which whipped Apartment Services 20-9 for its ninth triumph in 13 starts.

Chuck's pounded out 29 hits as Eileen O'Brien hammered a pair of homers in three hits and drove in two runs. Debbie Novotny also collected three hits off of loser Shelly Amoz who served up a "cycle" to Ann Kolnits whose homer, triple, double, and single produced four RBIs.

Also checking in with four runs batted in was Dana Lindon who belted a circuit clout and clubbed three singles.

Kathy Howard, the winner, gave up a total of eight hits. Two of those safeties went to Chris Nadolski who singled and tripled in three runs. Sandy Garbarino also had a single and triple, while Darlene Fabinski wound up the game with three RBIs.

Over in Class B where J & D Auto appears to have everything under control, the Varsity Club throttled Westworld 8-2 for its fifth win in 11 starts.

Westworld scored two runs in the first inning off of winner Kathy McBride who settled down and pitched scoreless ball the rest of the evening. Meantime, Varsity Club picked up a run in its second and went ahead for good with a three-run rally in the third.

McBride was tagged for two hits by Sue Barbalos and a run-scoring triple by Michelle Crimboli. Donna Crechiolo also singled for the losers.

Kelly Schultz was the loser. She served up a pair of two-baggers to Kathy Goode and Mary Jeffries. McBride and Ann Goll each checked in with two hits.

Westland title hopefuls must 'make their move'

It's "make your move time" in Westland Parks and Recreation softball leagues.

Or hold your peace until next season.

With the season winding down and playoffs just around the corner, title hopefuls have only a couple of weeks to catch the frontrunners.

However, Leaseway apparently is not going to yield to pressure as the Class A men's softball leader has a four-game edge (17-1) over its nearest rival, Joe Thomas (13-5) in the race for the title.

Over in the Men's "B" Division, Bray's continues to set the pace with a 11-1 record and is well out of reach of runnerup, Bob's Place, which sports an 8-3 record.

It's a completely different story, however, in the men's "B" Red Division where Jake's Lounge and Rocco's are waging a dogfight for the crown. Both teams have amassed identical 12-1 won-lost records and may need a playoff to decide the regular season championship.

With an untarnished 16-0 record, W.A.O.A. appears to be untouchable in the Community/Organization League.

Wayne-Hunter Party Store and Fiesta Lanes are jammed atop of the Class C Green Division standings and will probably need a post-season showdown to determine which club will be awarded the first place trophy.

Wayne-Hunters shut out S.A.L.E. Advertising 12-0 for its 10th victory in 12 starts to keep its share of first as winning hurler Dave Gillies won the "mercy-rule abbreviated" game.

Gillies received ample hitting support from Jim Kocelia and Dan O'Brien who each homered and had three hits. Jerry Ball collected two hits off of loser Joe Bliss who also gave up a pair of doubles to Ken Leidel.

Gillies was tagged for 10 hits, three of those going to Bob Thomas. Denny Colbert had a single and double.

Fiesta came up with four runs in the bottom of the fifth, then held off McCurdy Optical which rallied for three runs in the seventh for a close 7-5 victory. Ed Spontack took the loss as he had his problems with Rick Sharp who connected for a pair of singles, and Gary Surim also singled and tripled.

Canton Tornadoes edge Orange Crush, 2-1

Lucy Morgan, co-founder of the Westland Youth Soccer League and long-time coach ended her final season by taking the Orange Crush (Boys U-14 Division) to a second place finish in the Great Lakes Soccer Tournament.

The Orange Crush was defeated by Canton Tornado 2-1 in a game played at Bicentennial Field, Livonia.

The Crush scored first at the six-minute mark when Gordie Wilkinson headed the ball into the net, assisted by Jeff Englehart. The Tornadoes tied the game at nine minutes, also on a header.

The final score came on a penalty kick late in the first half.

Mark Stabile in goal for the Crush shut out Canton the rest of the game.

The game was hard fought, with both teams applying pressure but failing to score in the second period.

To reach the finals, the Crush had to play two first round elimination games with Ypsilanti (Ontario Div.) and Westland Stampede.

Sweep 2-game series

Romulus All-Stars bury Wayne

It was as easy as "A" and "B" ... The Romulus All-Stars dominated their counterparts from Wayne, sweeping the Class A women's softball game 22-3 then whipping their "B" rivals 12-1 to take both ends of the series on Sunday.

Mary Much and Kathy Potoczek combined for a six-hitter in the "B" confrontation and missed a shutout when Wayne put its lone run on the board at the bottom of the fourth inning.

In the meantime, Romulus' battery collected 17 hits off of two Wayne hurlers — Sue Richardson and Mary Paluch who couldn't stop the potent Romulus bats.

Wayne scored its only run thanks to a run-batted in single by Bonnie Coughlin.

Romulus received some outstanding hitting and fielding from Lisa Bratcher who drilled a two-run triple. Lisa Miller checked in with a single and double for the winners.

In the "A" game, Romulus scored four times in the first inning then erupted for seven runs in the second frame and for all purposes the game was over then as Wayne failed to hit a pair of excellent Romulus hurlers, Debbie McBride and Kathy Michling.

Robin Johnson led Romulus' assault on pitchers Pat Bledsoe who gave up a total of 19 hits before she was relieved by Suzanne Riggs in the top of the fifth. Riggs held the Romulus sluggers to three hits and three runs the rest of the way.

Johnson laced two singles, a double and triple en route to five RBIs, while Mary DAY chipped in with three RBIs thanks to three hits and Sherry Hale drilled four hits, including a double. Also, Maria Franklin had a pair of runs batted in while Mary Day chipped in with a Gibson had a triple and single, good for two RBIs.

Mary Traynor, Debbie Iscaro and Anne Ceane split six of Wayne total 12 hits.

Titles are up for grabs

Winning pitcher Necce gave up three hits to Bob Mijal, who belted a pair of doubles and had a triple. Dave Milan also checked in with two hits.

In other "C" games, Car Tunes went on a hitting rampage and collected 22 hits off of loser Bob Bolen in a 16-4 triumph over Snafu. Mark Hamel drilled five hits, including two doubles, and accounted for five RBIs for the winners. Chuck Plytation had a single, double and triple and don Rodrigo had four singles for the winners.

Winning hurler Ralph Szydlowski was tagged for 12 hits with Don P-per and Bob Getchell each collecting two.

In another "mercy rule game," Krazy Roses whitewashed the Elite 13-0 as Keith McManaway clubbed a pair of over-the-fence homers. Timur Mehmed had two hits, including a roundtripper and Jim Redford laced two singles off of loser Steve Robinson.

Robinson and Gary Lubinske had two of the Elite's four hits.

Tedrick Photo edged Traver Realty; 7-6 in one of the better games this week. Tedrick, after striking for five runs in the first inning, scored its last two — and crucial tallies — in the fourth off of loser Larry Coffin.

Winner Steve Meyers gave up a pair of runs in the opening frame then surrendered four more in the third, but went on to pitch scoreless ball the last four innings.

Meyers helped his cause with three singles which chased home two RBIs, while Mark Griffin and Chuck Pickering each had two hits.

Mark Engle led Traver's assault with three singles and Jim Sipe had two safeties, one a two-run double.

Community involvement is the philosophy behind the continued growth and success of the Associated Newspapers (ANP) group.

ANP is entering its 40th year of service to the 10 Western Wayne County communities that it serves through its six suburban weekly publications.

Associated is today playing an active and important part in the development of this area, both through responsible journalistic contributions, and also through the group's innovative approach to providing each of its publications with its own community identity.

The Associated Newspapers, through their six publications, represent the following cities, townships, and school districts as their official Legal Publications:

- City of Westland
- City of Wayne
- City of Inkster
- City of Romulus
- City of Belleville
- Canton Township
- Sumpter Township
- Huron Township
- Van Buren Township
- Wayne/Westland School District
- Inkster School District
- Cherry Hill School District
- Romulus School District
- Van Buren School District

The many local and national awards won for journalistic excellence speak well for Associated Newspapers' accomplishments.

With a commitment to community involvement, Associated has demonstrated a leadership role in bringing progressive programs to its communities which foster citizen interest and provide residents with access to their local and state elected officials.

Associated Newspapers has its heart in its community. Edited by local people, written by local people, and managed by local people involved in their community, Associated provides the example of what local newspapering should be.

WAYNE COUNTY YOUTH FAIR

FAIRGROUNDS-QUIRK RD., BELLEVILLE

AUGUST 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 & 14

The Wayne County Fair Association, Inc. invites you to attend the 36th Annual Fair.

You may be an exhibitor, concessionaire, entertainer or spectator. Whatever the case may be, we want to welcome you to our 1982 event and to give you a little format about the Wayne County Fair.

The Fair is a non-profit organization administered by a 21-member board of civic-minded individuals who receive no compensation whatsoever for serving on the board. They are required to buy their admission tickets to the fair and to serve on various committees.

Some financial assistance on premium money for exhibits is provided by the Michigan Department of Agriculture. However, we are not funded by tax money and we do pay taxes to Van Buren Township and the County of Wayne.

The staff of the fair is here to serve you and with your help, to make the fair the very best.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

High unemployment is Michigan's major problem, for it drives up welfare costs while reducing tax revenues. The remedy is to create incentives for private industry to locate in Michigan. Our second problem is government growth and it's insatiable appetite for new revenues. Solution would be to cut taxes — the means of government growth.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

Jobs, we need economic development, and Michigan must become more attractive for existing and new businesses to encourage diversification and expansion.

Legislation is needed to control government spending. State programs should die when they are no longer needed. A "sunset" law would ensure this to happen.

The continuing inflationary rise in property values has resulted in spiraling tax bills. We must move ahead now to develop a program of relief for homeowners.

The legislature gives welfare more money and greater priority than education. Education should be our number one priority.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

The total mismanagement of Michigan's economy by the current legislature. Our high unemployment is a direct result of the complicated and burdensome single business tax, worker's compensation laws designed to introduce fraud, and an unemployment compensation program which has resulted in a $2.4 billion debt to the federal government. We must immediately change our legislation to attract small business and non-cyclical industry, such as canning of our agricultural products.

Our high residential property taxes are the result of the destruction of the commercial base in our district by our legislative bodies.

The economy and business climate are our number one problem, spending and taxes, number two. Close also is the decline in educational quality. My solutions would be a financial audit, and a management audit bringing together leaders to design a long-range plan. Unemployment compensation changes, single business tax reform and tax credits for research and development that creates jobs.

- A HIGH UNEMPLOYMENT RATE
- EDUCATION LOSING FUNDING
- MASSIVE CUTS IN SOCIAL SERVICES

- CITIZENS LOSING THEIR HOMES BY REPOSSESSION
- HOMEOWNERS BEING FORCED TO SELL THEIR HOMES

Immediate tax relief to people through a rollback of assessed values to the 1980-81 level with a freeze placed on any increase in assessed value sufficient to develop a fair and equitable tax program. Establish a system of accountability of the various commissions, bureaus and authorities. Presently people have no control over the actions and conduct of these bodies. "What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

I tie everything to one issue, keeping the business we have and re-establishing some of the people who've gone out of business and trying to bring some of the business back to the state that has left due to high tax structures and high cost of production in the State of Michigan.

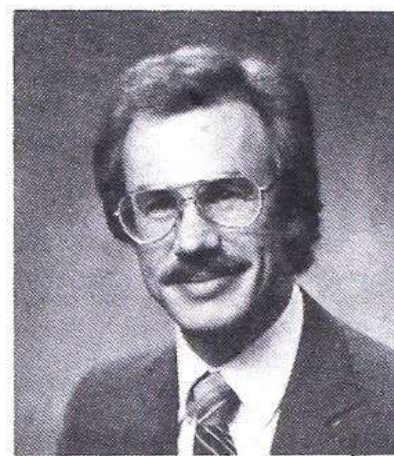

In doing so we have to take another look at workmen's compensation to re-evaluate the unemployment insurance and also take a look at the regulations put on business through OSHA and MYOSHA. These are the three main causes of business leaving the state. Another area that has to be looked into is the welfare program. I fully agree we need a welfare program for needy, but when looking at neighboring states, we are paying up to 90 percent higher. We should try to be more in line and competitive with these other areas.

I feel business and jobs are a basic cure-all for people. Having jobs they then can then pay their taxes, buy the automobiles that are not selling today and put more money into state tax coffers which will then provide more programs that people need and deserve.

Property taxes — the system is archaic and unfair to senior citizens and the unemployed. It does not provide adequate financing for schools.

Education — The state formula guarantees better education for the children of the wealthy and this is shameful! Where a child is born should not affect the quality of his education.

Welfare — Michigan needs a "protective" welfare system, but cannot afford an "attractive" one.

Job Attraction — An upsurge in autos will help a lot, but not enough. Michigan's governmental environment must be adapted to attracting more businesses and jobs. A coalition of business, labor and government should be established.

Michigan's lack of diversified jobs and thus, its inability to withstand changes in the economic cycles. The problem of Michigan's economy must be improved first at the conceptual level by encouraging compromise and cooperation between labor, management and government to stimulate existing businesses and create diversified jobs.

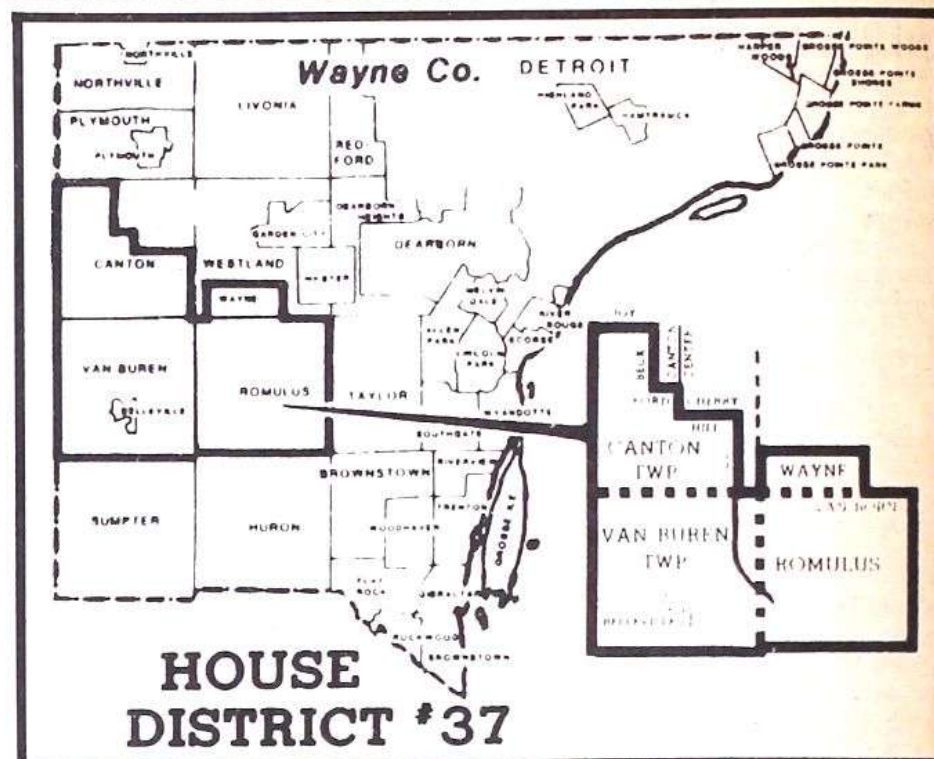

The tax reduction and low interest loan incentives should be redirected to smaller businesses, particularly those already in Michigan.

Abundant regulations must be simplified and the Single Business Tax reformed to focus more fairly upon business income.

Other problems are regressive and unfair taxes affecting both individuals and businesses and the lack of efficiency and fiscal responsiveness in state government.

Solutions would include a shifting school funding from property tax to sales and/or income tax and the re-establishment of spending priorities.

A depression economy with all of its negative ramifications (high unemployment, failing businesses, declining tax revenues, etc.) is by far the state's biggest problem. All other problems are miniscule when compared to our economic situation. I wish to emphasize that our troubles have largely been created by forces which exist outside of Michigan. State government must do whatever it can to promote diversification of the state's economy. We must encourage creation of new jobs that are not tied to the automobile industry.

I NEED YOUR HELP,
AUGUST 10th

GARY BATES,
Trustee, Huron Township

The re-districting that has taken place through the new County Charter has left an area in Southwestern Wayne County that has some very unusual circumstances in common that don't seem to affect other districts to the same extent. These common points are exactly what I would like to you to consider when choosing a candidate for the Office of County Commissioner in the 11th District.

This area — comprised of Rockwood, Flat Rock, Huron Township, Sumpter, Van Buren, Belleville, Wayne, Romulus, and Canton — represents the largest land mass of any district in Wayne County.

The main issue of this campaign seems to be the New Wayne County Charter. This is an important issue, but Southwestern Wayne County has some unique problems relative to sewage rates, drainage, roads, taxes, landfills, and sewage recovery — to mention a few. Some questions that come to mind are:

- Is the 11th District meant to service Wayne County by becoming its dumping ground for its waste products in the form of trash and sewage?
- Is the 11th District meant to support Wayne County in the form of taxes on much of its overvalued residential industrial and commercial property?
- Is the 11th District meant to have the lack of service in drainage problems that currently exist?

Here we are, Wayne County — the birthplace of the automobile; the first paved road — standing in mud up to our knees! Maybe it's intended to have many of Wayne County's problems dumped into one district — OURS?

There will be but one voice for the largest land mass of any district in Wayne County with many common problems. That voice will have to be strong. That voice will have to be resolute. That voice must be honest. That voice must be fair and the man or woman with that voice may have to look the devil square in the eye! I CAN DO THAT, MY FRIENDS!

Your Strong Voice In Lansing!!

MAHALAK SAYS NO TO INCREASE IN STATE INCOME TAX (APRIL 9, 1982 AND MAY 11, 1982).

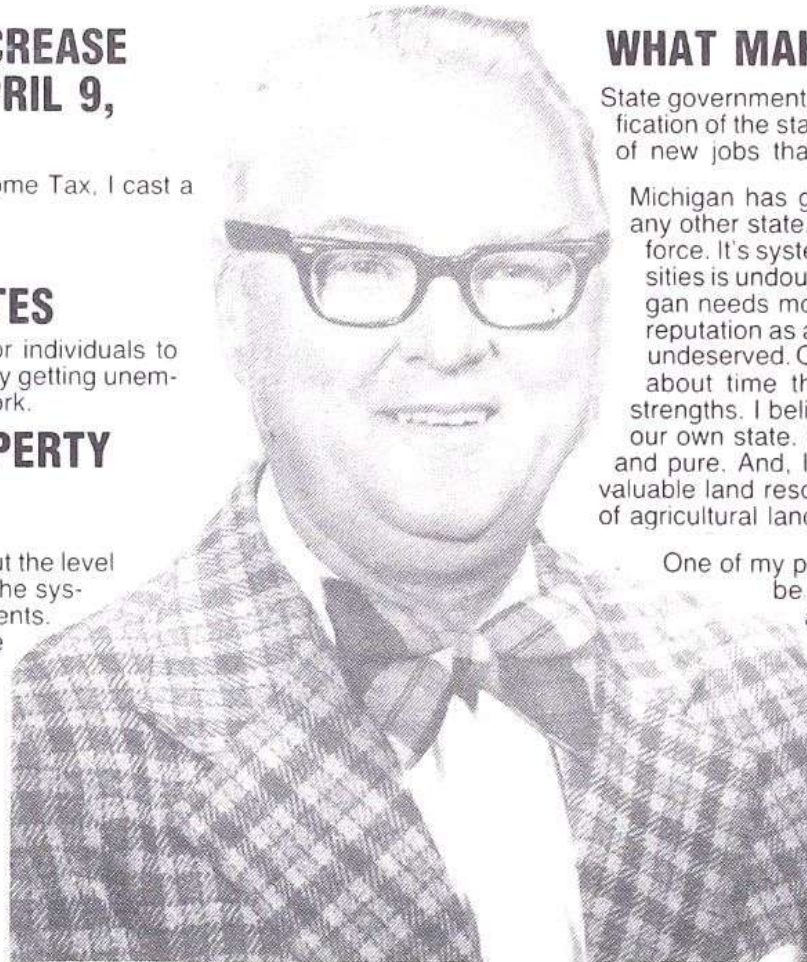

On passage of the bill raising the State Income Tax, I cast a "No" vote.

MAHALAK SAYS NO TO INCREASING INTEREST RATES

Interest rates should be lowered in order for individuals to purchase items, automobiles, homes, thereby getting unemployment down. Let's get people back to work.

MAHALAK SUPPORTS PROPERTY TAX REDUCTION

Many citizens continue to be concerned about the level of property taxes, and about the fairness of the system for determining property tax assessments. Equalization by class has been a major issue in this ongoing debate. I originally opposed it because I felt it would be an unfair shift of the tax burden from businesses to individual homeowners. Since its passage, I've twice voted in support of efforts to repeal or delay its effect (3/13/79; 2/25/81; 3/25/82).

WHAT MAHALAK BELIEVES

State government must do whatever it can to promote diversification of the state's economy. We must encourage creation of new jobs that are not tied to the automobile industry.

Michigan has greater surface fresh water resources than any other state. It has a highly skilled and disciplined work force. Its system of public community colleges and universities is undoubtedly one of the nation's finest. What Michigan needs more than anything is a good selling job. Our reputation as a bad place in which to do business is plainly undeserved. Our strengths far exceed our weaknesses. It's about time the world was made fully aware of these strengths. I believe that we must keep our water for use in our own state. I believe that this water must be kept fresh and pure. And, I believe that we must move to protect our valuable land resources by discouraging urban development of agricultural land.

One of my personal priorities in the new Legislature will be to work on transportation improvements and funding for those improvements.

Depression level unemployment and the inability of our leaders in Lansing to effectively address this monumental problem. Michigan must have jobs now!

Taxation. The stranglehold tax burden on the residents of my community and the state and the continuing attitude of our representatives in Lansing that the solution to all our problems is more and more taxes. The citizens of this state are crying out for tax relief and Lansing's response is an outrageous 22 percent personal income tax hike.

Accountability. It is time for the politicians to wake up and realize that the people are fed up with the candidate who pats them on the back and then gets to Lansing and stabs them in the back.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

The most important issue facing the legislature is the need to improve the state's economy and reduce unemployment. We must redouble our efforts to diversify the economy, promoting new industries, such as high technology and robotics, while continuing to encourage Michigan's automobile, agriculture and tourism industries. Secondly, to provide needed state services in the face of severely limited revenues. As a member of the Senate Appropriation Committee, I have been working to reorder state spending priorities to provide greater support for education, mental health and other needed programs. Property tax relief continues to be one of my major concerns, and I have supported a number of property tax cut measures during my tenure in Lansing. I voted against tax increase bills, such as PA 114 (equalization by class). I believe that assessments should be reduced during a period of declining housing prices, and the state equalization process needs to be better defined and controlled by law. I introduced legislation to expand the Homestead Property Tax Credit Program, too.

Tax reform — We must reform taxes. We have to remove education from support by property tax to the general fund, and it can be done without raising the income tax. We have to revise the single Business Tax to a tax on profits rather than the current tax on gross sales. Attract new business — We can do that by revamping the Single Business Tax and Worker's Compensation. We need to look for new business, especially in the high technology area. We have to take the burden off the backs of property owners. Clause 17 — The ability of the mortgage company to forbid the sales of homes by land contract or assumption is all but criminal. It's destroying people's life savings because they are unable to sell their homes at a fair price. The performance of Robert Geake — In three years the legislature spent $2.2 million in postage, with Sen. Geake spending double the average. I'm running my own campaign out of my own pocket, so it's run tightly.

The major issue is long-term economic development, which translates into long-term jobs, with an emphasis on diversification away from the auto industry. To achieve that, we must make it cheaper for industry to do business in Michigan. We must lower single business tax and give greater tax credits to certain industries such as robotics. We have to have reformation of property taxes and a lowering of medical costs. Michigan is the highest in midwest for medical insurance premiums.

The job for the 80's is to expand and diversify our state's economy thus creating jobs and spreading our tax base among increased numbers. We must prioritize services, so that a streamlined state government will not result in fewer and lower quality services. Those services most in need (like education, transportation, police protection, and public safety) must not be allowed to deteriorate. We must hold the line on taxes, while maintaining vital services.

We must increase the efficiency of our agricultural and timber resources. Greater efficiency will result in greater production and greater rewards for all Michigan residents. Further, the use of Michigan's fresh water must remain in Michigan and used as a selling point to draw the businesses and jobs we need to recover and prosper economically.

We must remember those who have worked all their lives.

(3) Need to protect and provide basic services and benefits to senior citizens and basic employment skills for the young and unemployed.

Finally, the most important issue is which candidate is the most qualified and best able to serve our area and get results in the Legislature. My record alone stands the test of performance and not promises.

The issues are jobs, taxes and business climate. The solutions are: cut state taxes that are driving business and industry out of Michigan. Eliminate wasteful spending and dead-end welfare giveaway programs for the able bodies that drag our state into a continually higher demand for taxes.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

The major problems facing government are obvious and include the economy, jobs and taxes. A balanced approach is required to solve them. The economic and unemployment pictures would be improved by assisting business in retraining our existing work force, reducing our debt to the federal government for unemployment taxes, diversification of industry and reasonable incentives for new business. In addition, we must revise the formula through which property taxes are determined. It is an unfair method of taxation since it is based on estimates rather than actual data.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

I believe that the people of the tenth district have lost faith in our budget, because of the present economical situation. Our tax dollars must work for us, especially during this time of economic anxiety or frustration.

Presently this is not true. Everytime our state legislature trims the budget, it always comes from the bottom. When we cut from the bottom of the budget we affect the blue-collar workers and the little businessman.

It's time to start the cuts from the top of the budget and evenly distribute all cuts.

Income taxes — especially the temporary tax. This tax should have never been passed. Furthermore, it is most likely illegal. Property taxes — millage for the school financing doesn't work. It is inequitable, and we must find alternate means to finance education. Wayne County Road Commission — the Road Commission keeps taking property and money from the people of Romulus. This blood governmental agencies must stop. The second class treatment of the citizens of this district, just because we live outside Detroit, we get treated like we don't exist.

The new county executive and his ability to recognize the problems, having the guts to deal with them rationally and the commissioners' respect for his judgement and vice-versa. Unless they are all working together for the same purpose, with knowledge and integrity toward reform, I see disaster for at least two years.

Wayne County Road Commission should merge with the county, and Wayne County may have to consider a merger with the City of Detroit, e.g. Dade County and the City of Miami.

Jobs — Will work to provide a climate favorable for business to come to Michigan. We must provide jobs for citizens. It is discouraging that so many of our young people are forced to leave their family and friends to go out of state for work. Senior citizens — Will work to provide more aid for our seniors. We must provide care to those who have worked and raised families so they can enjoy the retirement they deserve with a feeling of security. Crime — Will work to strengthen our criminal justice system. We can also reduce crime by striving to eliminate its causes, unemployment, drug abuse and poor education. Education and property taxes — We must make education a top priority in Michigan once again. Also to provide relief to homeowners from high property taxes. In 1967, when Sen. William Faust went to Lansing, education was funded by 67 percent from state funds and 38 percent from property taxes. Today this has reversed. The state is only providing 38 percent of the funding, whereas local property tax is paying the additional 62 percent. This has put an excessive burden on homeowners and local school districts who are fighting for survival. Social Services — With unemployment at its highest levels since the depression Social Services have been cut. This is irresponsible. We must help our citizens during their time of need. Aid should not be cut at a time when need is greatest.

The increase of one mill being proposed comes at a time when people are barely existing. If the state would take care of schools, taxpayers would be willing to make the sacrifice to see the county through. According to the state constitution, "Property is assessed at half its true value." True value comes into play at consummation of a deal. The sale of a small percentage of real property should not determine the value of property not sold. People are taxed on intent. I hope to work along with others to bring about a new approach to value for equalization purposes.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

First and foremost, every resource at my disposal will be used to bring more jobs to Wayne County.

Second, many roads in our communities are not being cleared of snow during the winter, roads are flooded in many areas during the spring and the rest of the year there are numerous potholes to contend with. The County Road Commission was identified by numerous voters as an example of waste and inefficiency in government. I will work for improved road conditions and I will do everything possible to get the road commission to use the revenues it receives more effectively.

Third, I am concerned about the elderly of this area. The security of the elderly must be assured. I will work to assure their security. The residents of this district are concerned about police, fire and emergency medical services, available in their communities. These services can mean the difference between life and death. I will work to support those who are responsible for providing these services.

The key issue is the functioning of Wayne County. I will make a difference in Wayne County's functioning by being responsible to and straight-forward with my constituency and my colleagues.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

The Road Commission Executive Union. I am opposed to the grant of the six year no cut contract given to the 73 top level Wayne County Road Commission executives. It is obvious that the contract was given for the express purpose of evading and overruling the public will. I will do everything possible and will explore every avenue available in an effort to void that contract.

Financial integrity. The county must deliver its services at a fair cost to the public. This means that bloated payrolls and unnecessary or unproductive programs would have to be eliminated. I would seek to obtain independent professional non-political advisors to review all county financial practices to establish a framework for long-range sensible budget practices.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

The Wayne County fiscal crisis could have been avoided. The new county commission should use more realistic revenue projections and better budgets. Eliminate top-heavy administration and waste by investigation and cuts. The Wayne County Commission must step up to its responsibilities and the State of Michigan should pay its fair and legal share for the programs it delegates to the county.

High taxes. Presently county property taxes amount to approximately 10-15 percent of the tax bill. The commission should be committed to a thorough review of all programs, including an evaluation of the worth to the taxpayer. Absolutely no board, commission, department or bureau should be immune from this review.

Lack of accountability and basic service. The commission must obtain a complete accounting of the financial condition of the county by retaining the most competitively priced, nationally known CPA firm found to be beyond reproach. This must be done to get a good fresh start with the new charter.

Financial credibility is the most critical problem facing the county. I believe I can solve the problem by investigating expenditures before they are made and never spending money we don't have! The county should not be bailed out. I demand financial responsibility.

Wayne County has been crippled by its financial crisis. No budget items must be protected. The county must not spend more money than it generates and as a commissioner, I will never vote for a budget that exceeds revenues. That vote, however, is not enough. It must be backed up with strong leadership to say no to budget busters.

To achieve a balanced budget without drastic curtailment of services to Wayne County citizens.

To effect a transition, as smoothly as possible, from a General Law County to a Charter County. Much will depend on who is elected as the first county executive, because that person will present a reorganization plan to the board of commissioners which will drastically change county government and set the pattern for some years to come.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

The orderly implementation of the reorganization plan. The electorate has indicated its desire for a change and these changes must be more than mere paper or cosmetic in nature. Tough, new decisions are necessary concerning the county's various agencies and departments.

The orderly and efficient transfer of duties to the newly elected county executive. The county commissioners must assist and direct the county executive in the implementation of the reorganization plan, if accepted by a majority of the commissioners.

The reduction of the county's deficit by whatever measures necessary. Wayne County's budget must be balanced as quickly as possible. The cutting of budget items may not be the solution to the county's budget problems. The entire delivery system needs evaluation in an attempt to eliminate wasteful spending and the recution of duplications. One solution lies in the promotion of new business and the diversification of the automobile industry.

The streamlining of the county's delivery system. The system is antiquated and is in desperate need of updating. There will be strong opposition from many self-serving groups. Individuals who have strength and commitment to the people must be elected if we are to see the county become the leader it should be.

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

The major issue of this election is the county's projected $17.5 million deficit. Unfortunately, before realistic decisions can be made concerning the budget an audit is necessary. The present Wayne County Board of Commissioners appears unwilling or unable to do this. It is apparent that the new county executive and the reduced new board of commissioners will be responsible for this.

THE PROBLEMS OF THE WHITE MINORITIES

1. We support both the rich and the Poor!
2. We've been forced out of our cities!
3. We are the victims of inflated housing prices!
4. Our house payments are so high that we often cannot afford to buy a decent car.
5. Our property taxes are so high that our monthly taxes are equal to a house payment.
6. We are forced to bus our children!
7. We are blackmailed into building low-income housing!
8. We lose our jobs when plants close down because of drinking, drugs and poor quality work by certain minorities!
9. Because of Affirmative Action we are: Passed up for jobs, lose promotions and often are forced to take lower paying jobs with longer hours.
10. Seniority is often ignored and we are unfairly laid-off.
11. We can't go to our cities for recreation and socializing because of crime and violence, and we can't go to the country because of high gasoline prices!
12. We must drive farther to work!
13. We are being threatened with gun control!
14. We are the victims of nonwhite minority crime and violence!
15. Our laws are not being enforced!
16. We are forced to support illegal aliens and Cuban and Haitian so-called "Refugees"!
17. Senior citizens must sell their homes because they cannot afford to pay the taxes!
18. Our Auto and Home insurance rates are higher, because of the high risk involved with living in or around the City of Detroit. And the argument that we are all White and belong to a united, White Majority, is completely false. The Middle-Class, White, working man has nothing in common with the Radical Liberals and the Radical Rich, most all of whom are White, who run this country.
19. We often do not register to vote for fear of being called to crime-ridden Detroit for jury-duty. (We are being denied our Constitutional Right to vote.)
20. Whenever we criticize the Blacks (like with Magnum oil) they yell racism, and whenever we say that we want to protect the rights of White People, the Blacks yell racism. Whatever happened to free speech?

A complete management and procedures audit by outside professionals to better use our resources.

Work with lawyers, personnel experts and community leaders to ensure the elimination of conflicts of interest and nepotism.

Eliminating duplication of services where possible while providing the maximum service to the citizens will be a major goal of my county reorganization committee. Each department of county government will be closely studied to improve cost effectiveness. I am confident that we can obtain both financial savings and better service.

My county reorganization committee will look at each part of the budget for better efficiencies and savings. There are no areas which will not be closely scrutinized. We must eliminate phony budget numbers — let the people know where we stand — stop phony cost estimates and inflated revenue projections.

Candidate name: Edward H. McNamara (D)

Office sought: Wayne County Chief Executive

Age: 55 Family data: Married, five children

Residence: Livonia

Employment: Mayor, City of Livonia

Education: PhD Degree, University of Detroit

Political history: Dearborn Township School Board 1954-1959, Livonia City Council 1962-1969, Mayor of Livonia, 1970-present

Endorsements:

Anticipated campaign spending: $229,000

Mostly important is setting the financial house in order. The first requirement is a complete audit and it will then be necessary to live within a strictly balanced budget. Job development and encouragement of new industrial development is a second priority. This can be achieved by creating a more stable financial environment in the county and aggressively seeking new enterprises such as was done for the City of Livonia.

Another major issue concerns improvement and expansion of senior citizens services. Federal funding and promotion of other financial assistance can lead to more housing, nutrition, recreation and other needed programs.

A fourth priority concerns improvement of roads. Changes in supervisory personnel and job assignments, particularly in the road commission, may be needed to upgrade maintenance and repair of county roads within budget requirements.

Candidate name: Mel Ravitz (D)

Office sought: Wayne County Executive

Age: 58 Family data: Married, Seven children

Residence: Detroit

Employment: City of Detroit, Council member

Education: B.A. Wayne State University, M.A. New School for Social Research, Ph.D. University of Michigan

Political history: Detroit Councilman, 1961 until present

Endorsements:

Anticipated campaign $17,000 - $18,000

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

While I do not believe in the magic hero theory of government, I do believe that a strong, responsible, independent county executive can help point the way to recovery. In addition to all else he must do, the county executive must be an active advocate for countywide economic development. He can do that by coordinating with other officials, including the several economic development commissions, by seeking the cooperation, the confidence and the participation of business and labor, and most of all his own independent appointive, reorganization and budgetary decisions.

The mandate of the people of this county is to reorganize the government promptly and in such a way as to bring the road commission and the sheriff's department back into the county family and insist that these agencies and all other county agencies take their direction from those public officials who were elected to set county policy. Further, the people expect the new county executive to balance the budget as soon as possible, to relate cooperatively, but effectively, with the heads of cities and townships as well as with other county officers and to strengthen the county's service delivery capability.

Candidate name: Robert E. Fitzpatrick (R)

Office sought: Wayne County Executive

Age: 48 Family data: Married, one child

Residence: Dearborn

Employment: Economic Development Corp. of Wayne County

Education: B.S. Pacific Western University, 1981

Political history: Wayne County Board of Commissioners, 1969-1974

Endorsements:

Anticipated campaign spending: $20,000-$30,000 in primary, $100,000 in final

"What do you feel are the major issues involved in this election?"

I believe the number one issue is the creation of private sector jobs. You cannot have public sector service without private sector jobs. I would expand and coordinate those agencies currently involved with job training and job expansion. I would set up a revolving loan fund to provide loans at below market rates to small business; seek legislation from the State to reimburse Wayne County for tax abatement that they have lost over the past four years, over $8 million; and urge the implementation of H.R. 6100 in Congress which would provide money to local communities for business expansion.

DON'T RECALL OUR SUPERVISOR!

WE SUPPORT PAT CULLIN

OUR VAN BUREN TWP. SUPERVISOR

We believe that her excellent service and dedication to Van Buren deserves your support too!! We urge you, our friends and neighbors, to retain our Township Supervisor.

VOTE NO ON AUGUST 10TH

Pat Cullin has experience, clout, is a leader, and a public servant. She has represented the people of Van Buren Township for twelve years. Her record is one of efficiency, effectiveness and service. Her dedication is a known fact. Her job has come first, that job being to serve the people of this community. For the past year she has been badgered, battered, slandered and dragged into the ground by a group of self-serving individuals who only surfaced as "politicians" in the last election. Sadly enough, these self-serving individuals have no experience and know nothing about Township government and management; therefore, they continue to distort the daily management of Township operations, which is one of the most efficient in Wayne County.

Supervisor Cullin has been a major contributor in this community's growth and well-being. She has always been honest in the discharge of her responsibilities and she has been a fighter on those issues that adversely affect our integrity, reputation and environment. She has represented Van Buren Township on such regional and state-wide organizations as P.C.H.A., Southeastern Council of Governments, Council on Regional Development, Chartered-Urban Township Alliance, Western Five Community Conference and Community Development Block Grant Advisory Council. As a voice in these organizations, she has always spoke up for the rights of our community, voted against issued that would harm our community and fought for issues that would benefit our community.

Her leadership role has been exemplary and the respect she has earned from other elected officials and community leaders is one she can be proud of. Supervisor Cullin has, is and shall continue to be a "people's" politician. If recalled, the loss of knowledge, expertise and common sense would be devastating to Van Buren. Look at Supervisor Cullin's long history of dedicated public service, then look to the future and figure out where we will be without her. VOTE "NO" August 10th TO RETAIN PAT CULLIN!
